and speciator I would like the commond the students who participated in the Rand Festival at Birmingham high school on Saturday. Our own band students and those who helped as well as stifling students were well behaved an amanenty.

I have the students were well behaved an in amanenty. The students were the students of the good things about teen-spers, During the course of the day there were at least 1200 boys and girls in our school.

in our school.

This is a goodly number compared to the few who give teenagers a bad name. Let's hear more of the good things about these kids. We can well be proud of them.

A PLEASED PARENT

Coal experts are anticipating a steady rise in coal production, to 600 million tons by 1906. In 1976, say million tons by 1906. In 1976, say one billion tons a year as greater demand for coal for electric power, for steel and for chemicals, as well as increased use in general industry pushes coal tomage higher.

Parochial Notes For U of D. Slated Saturday

By CAROL ANN JURICA
The yearly entrance exams for
U. of D. high school are slated
Saturday, March 7, from 9:30 till 1:30. About 30 boys from Holy Name's eighth grades will take the tests.

At 3 p.m. last Sunday afternoon. Holy Name's boys' varsity played its final and most important game of the baskethall sekson. Holy Name lost to St. Frederick's of Pontlac, 39-35. High scorer for the game was Dave Walter.

All Holy Name pupils had their pitcures taken this week by Stu-dent's Studio, Detroit, who come every year for the same purpose. The project was sponsored by the Holy Name P.T.A.

Mrs. Norman Gehringer, P.T.A. health and safety chairman was in charge of the vision tests given to all students of Holy Name this past week, beginning Monday.

The all-city playoffs for the girls' varsity basketball squad will begin in about two weeks. The girl-placed first in the league standings with a nine win, no loss record.

The Young People's Art Center t the Cranbrook Art Galleries will pen its third 10-week session
