

This is what the Pine Lake country club will look like when the new wing is finished some time this summer. Country club president Charles Livingstone said the new wing will include a new kitchen, cocktail lounge, mixed grill room, men's stag grill and locker rooms for both men and women.

Pine Lake CC Begins New Wing and Plans, Has Long History

With the announcement of plans to construct a new wing on the club house this summer, Pine Lake country club officials have also revealed plans to operate the club on a year-round basis.

The new wing will cost an estimated $300,000 and will contain the kitchen, locker rooms for both men and women, cocktail lounge and a mixed grill.

Three-Way Tie Jams Rek League

Only two games were played in the recreation senior basketball league last week due to another event being held in the gym. Doneky threw the league into a three-way tie for first by edging Fawcett, 41-61, and Dahlquist crushed Torrence, 25-10, as all five starters hit for double figures.

DCD Meets St. Mary In Tourney

Detroit Country Day, currently riding the crest of a three-game winning streak, will carry that victory skein into the Class D district tournament at East Detroit tonight.

The Yellow Jackets will meet New Baltimore St. Mary at 6 p.m. in the East Detroit high school gym. Coach Dan Halling drew a bye for Tuesday's action.

MT. CLEMENS' Memphis and Detroit Sweetest Heart of Mary will open the tourney Tuesday at 7 p.m. and the winner will meet Marine City Holy Cross Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The championship game will be played Saturday at 7 p.m. The Yellow Jackets chalked up their third straight win, this time at the expense of Lutheran East Thursday, 58-27.

HALLING used all seven players in the rout and four of them found the range easily as the locals jumped off to a 22-13 half-time lead and then increased it, 45-18, at the end of the third period.

Jim Cramer led the winners with 16 points; younger brother Mike added 12 as did Tom Derleth and John Seeley chipped in with 11.

Earlier in the season, Halling predicted his team would round out shape by early February. It is beginning to look as if his prediction was correct.

Southfield May Meet State's No. 1 Team

If Southfield high defeated University of Detroit high in the district tournament at Southfield last night, the Jay cagers have a very formidable opponent facing them Saturday night.

Working on the supposition that Southfield did beat U. of D., the Jays can now look forward to meeting the state's number one prep team—Pontiac Central at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

WATERFORD and Bentley opened the Southfield tournament Tuesday along with Walled Lake and Redford Union.

The winner at the Waterford-Bentley game will meet Farmington for one championship and the winner of the Walled Lake-Redford Union tilt will meet Rochester for another.

Pontiac Northern and Catholic Central will have a one-game elimination for the third title and Pontiac Central will play Saturday

Don't look now, but it could be that the Detroit Tiger management, coaching and players are beginning to show some common sense.

The first move was ex-general manager John McHale's trades which brought Don Mossi and Ray Narleski last November.

The most amazing part of the whole deal, however, was not that this brace of relief artists came to Detroit, but not a word was uttered as to how many games they would win or how many times they would save this or that contest.

AS IF THIS wasn't enough, the management then came forth with that package offer on the pastebards that included all night games, Sunday contests, holiday tilts and the double-headers.

After practically ignoring Joe Fan for, lo, these many years, the management appeared to really be considering them.

Then the Tigers obtained Rocky Bridges and Eddie Yost in a trade with the Washington Senators.

Bridges, a shortstop of average ability, has a lifetime batting average of .263 while toiling for the Capital club. Another miracle occurred when several Tiger coaches were

Cranes End Campaign Saturday

Cranbrook cagers will finish the season this Saturday when they host Western Reserve in an Inter-State league contest.

The Cranes dropped a 58-36 decision to Nichols academy of Cleveland Friday. It was their sixth loss against eight wins.

THE LOCAL quintet will be seeking its first league win of the season when Reserve comes to town Saturday. Three of those six losses have been at the hands of I.S. league opponents.

Cranbrook trailed by only one point at the end of the first period against Nichols, but the host team exploded for 17 points in the second. (See CAMPAIGN, Page 7-E)

Kite Construction Clinic Set for Sat.

Three half-hour kite construction clinics will herald both spring and the first annual Bloomfield Art Association-Birmingham recreation department kite-flying contest to be held on April 4.

The clinics will be held at 11 a.m., 2 and 3 p.m. on Saturday in the basement of the Birmingham Y.M.C.A.

AN EXHIBIT of the kites may be entered in the design contest to be judged March 22 from 2 to 5 p.m. Entrants who win in this contest may also enter their kites in the flying contest.

Even the adults are getting into the act, according to Dale Brubaker, of the Bloomfield Art Association.

In the different events, adults will compete against adults and children against children.

EVERYONE in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area is invited to participate in the different contest.

Local artists will judge the design contest and the winning kites will be exhibited at the B.A.A. on Sunday, March 22.

A helicopter from the Grose He naval base may be present at the flying contest to judge the highest kite flown that day.

Entries for the design contest must be delivered to the B.A.A. house by 7 p.m. March 19.

Maples Start Tourney After Kimball Win

Little Jeff McPartlin (12) came in for these two quick points for Derby junior high's eighth-grade cagers in the annual All-Star game played at Birmingham high school Friday. Derby went on to win this game, 29-28, in spite of the vain effort by Terry Schaefer (6) to stop McPartlin on this particular play.

Derby Wins 1st Game, But Barnum Takes 2nd

No one will be blamed if they and Derby's ninth-grade quintet to snicker at the prediction made by duplicate the feat.

DERBY'S eighth-graders won, 29-28, in the first game of the season. Barnum's ninth-graders won, 27-25, in the second game. (See GAMES, Page 7-E)

Dick Schwarze let this one go in close for Derby's ninth-grade team, but the shot bounced around before rolling out and into the waiting hands of Barnum's Harvey Wallace. Just in case he missed, teammate Steve Bastable was waiting on the other side while Bruce Bates is in the background for Derby. Barnum went on to win the game, 27-25.

Met Warren In First Game Wed.

Birmingham met Warren Lincoln last night in its first district tournament game and the winner will meet Royal Oak Donders tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Birmingham's gym.

Highland Park and Royal Oak Donders started the tournament Tuesday night. Hamtramck and Oak Park played a one-game elimination for one title and the winner of the Highland Park-Kimball game will meet Ferndale for the second district crown.

DONDERS and the Birmingham-Lincoln winner will decide the third title while Hazel Park and Warren high school battle to meet Berkley for the fourth championship.

The Ferndale game will be played at 8:30 tonight with the Hazel Park-Warren tilt beginning at 7 p.m. The final game will be at 8 p.m., Saturday.

Birmingham moved into tournament play fresh on the heels of a 63-47 win over Kimball Friday.

AFTER trailing in the first quarter, the Maple jumped off to a three point lead at halftime and increased that to 13 by the end of the third quarter.

Merv Gallop rifled in 24 points in a personal scoring duel with Kimball's Mike Harris who had 22.

Balanced scoring, however, did the trick as Phil Isbell hit for 14 and Ned Polley did an outstanding job defensively for the Maples.

If Birmingham can win one of the district crowns, it is accorded a good chance of meeting Berkley, which is expected to win in its division, in the regional tournament next week.

And Birmingham tilt to Berkley by only one point earlier in the season.

Chiefs Bow To Detroit Monarchs

Birmingham's senior recreation hockey league champions went a long way before finally bowing in the Michigan amateur hockey association playoffs.

The Chiefs, who won both the Birmingham title and the district crown, were eliminated in the quarter-finals at Detroit by the Detroit Monarchs, 3-2, Friday at the Detroit skating club.

Gil Dubrick put Detroit in front at 3:05 of the first period, but Jerry Blazny tied it up for Birmingham with an assist from Doug Mooney at 17:08.

WAYNE Groleau put the Chiefs ahead at 4:12 of the second with an assist from Bob Durand. Bob Hapman tied it up again for Detroit at 17:10 of the same period.

It was Dubrick's second goal at 15:08 of the third that gave Detroit the game and the quarter-final championship.
