Report Cards Dampen Entrusiasm

B.H.H.S. was the scene of mixed emotions last week. Most students rejoiced at the thought of no school Friday, because of a teachers' convention. However, this glimmer of option of the convention of the convention treed. Except for some rare stalwart cases, there was room treed. Except for some rare stalwart cases, there was room to much improvement.

The list of officially grounded students has not yet been published as most of them have not yet shown their cards to the proper authorities. It promises to be considerably greater than the list of honor roll students, a situation re or greatlable enough that it is being fought by some of the rank of our students. Let's hope they are victorious.

'Beautiful, Isn't It?'

DELRAY BEACH, FLA. — Bigger Bonita have been caught in the gulfstream off Delray Beach, but it's been a long time since any fisherman ever looked as happy as Dick Adams of 325 Overhill road. The fact that it was his first fishing trip may have had something to do with his smile. The youngster was visiting his grandparents in Delray. smile. Delray.
