

If the average person were as hungry for mental and spiritual "food" as he is for consuming the food that goes into his stomach—what a greater level of civilization we would be enjoying on this earth! This difference in appetite represents the basic challenge confronting mankind... has confronted it ever since it began its trudge toward Utopia.

Newlywed McQueens Honeymoon in Bermuda

Emanuel Lutheran church of Lansing was the scene of the candlelight ceremony uniting in marriage Janet Kay Dietrich and Kenneth Henry MacQueen, Jr., Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Dietrich of Lansing and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henry MacQueen of Club drive, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a formal gown of pearl de soie and alencon lace featuring a sculptured neckline adorned with lace appliques and seed pearls. A fingertip veil fell from an heirloom lace hat of rose point lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Simney Dietrich, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Other attendants were the groom's sister, Mrs. Donald Magnuss, Judy LeMessurier, Mrs. Dean Carlson and Rosanne Dietrich, cousin of the bride.

They wore identical gowns of aqua chiffon with cummerbund waistlines and harem skirts. They carried white roses and carnations in their bouquets.

RICHARD MOIT was best man. Seating guests were the groom's brothers-in-law, Donald Maunders and Rod McCulloch. Other ushers were Dean Berry and Craig Ackerman.

The bride's mother wore a dress of turquoise lace over taffeta with matching hat. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue flowered print with white background. Both wore pink orchid corsages.

For going away, the bride wore a toast suit with matching print blouse complemented by beige accessories. After a Bermuda honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Birmingham.

MRS. KENNETH MACQUEEN, JR., pink orchid corsage.

Program Head Addresses SCF Community Tea

Last Friday afternoon's team on behalf of the Save the Children Federation, at which Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot and Mrs. Edward S. Wellock were co-hostesses, proved a community get-together for friends from near neighborhoods.

Glen Leet, program director for SCF, who was there to explain the international work of the federation, was happily surprised to greet a former Greenwich, Conn. neighbor, Mrs. Walter F. Brown. The Browns and their three children have recently moved to Bloomfield Village.

Among other guests was Mrs. Henry C. Johnson who has recently returned from Europe where she purchased items for the International Travelers Market to be held at Cranbrook Pavilion on September 19.

Other guests were Mesdames M. M. Roberts, James A. Beresford, Edwin M. Beresford, Howard B. Barker, Ruth Cumming, Harold A. Fitzgerald, A. C. Girard and John F. Gordon.

DuPont by BARWICK nylon CARPETING

On May 1 Dupont's 501 Nylon Carpeting by Barwick, from our regular stock, was placed on the drive of Culling Bros. Service Station. For 12 days it underwent the exposure of weather elements, heavy station traffic, gasoline and oil drippings plus all the other grease and dirt characteristics of a busy service station.

NOW!... See for yourself how it cleans!

The photo on the right shows the results of 12 days of exposure to weather, grime and grime. We now invite you to come to our store to see one-half of the 501 Nylon by Barwick just as it was taken from the station drive and half of it showing how it cleaned and without this most severe of tests. When you do you will agree that there is no substitute for DuPont's 501 Nylon Carpeting by Barwick!
