Check 866 Bikes
On Two Weekends

The Birmingham police department and Kiwanis club safety checked 866 bicycles and sold 399 licenses in the past two week ends at the city's eight elementary schools.

Bike-accident records read better this year than last, said Lt. Robert Schulte, head of the traffic safety bureau of the Birmingham police. It is the time of year usually marked by an upswing in accidents.

Traffic regulations apply to bike riders also, he pointed out. They must ride on the right side of the road, with traffic.

Four out of five bicycle accidents involve traffic law violations by bike riders, he said.
