Boy Scouts Have Gala Weekend With Dads

Boy Scouts of troop B-34 were among the many units participating in the District 1 "Camporee" at Highland recreation area last weekend. Harlan school was the starting point for the scouts and their dads on Friday evening.

Among the many activities planned for the enthusiastic group were a flap jack contest, first aid contest, a tag of war, rope relay, a game of run and whistle, hikes and camp fire singing. Each patrol was provided with electric motor equipment to assemble and operate by Sunday morning. Crafts and camping skills were also on the weekend activity list. Ed Hopper, outdoor activities chairman, was accompanied by area fathers during the outing.

A GROUP of enthusiastic Cub Scouts and parents witnessed the film "Tiger Town, USA" in which manager Jimmy Dykes, Al Kneiss and Harvey Keene, demonstrated proper sliding, throwing, hitting and fielding techniques, at the monthly Cub Scout Pack B-34 meeting at the Harlan school recently. Awards were presented to many of the cubs during the evening. The next picnic meeting will be the June Picnic.

THE LEONARD LANE association held their annual subdivision meeting in the Harlan school last Tuesday evening. New officers were elected for the coming year including Thayer Cowman, president; Sidney Beddor, vice president; George Platzer, treasurer; and Charles Morse, secretary. William McCurdy, outgoing president, conducted the meeting and elections.

THE WILLIAM BRECHES of Bloomfield Hills entertained at the Bradford, Conn. home of Pat Coffin, feature editor of Look Magazine.

On their return Mrs. Mooney and her sisters, Mrs. H. C. Boyd of Highland Park, and Mrs. George Shoaf of Detroit, traveled to Hopkinton, Ky. to visit another sister, Mrs. Bill Knauff. The sisters make this trek an annual affair, as it is the time of year Mrs. Knauff shows her saddle horses.

Fashions by Junior Misses

More than 500 parents watched these and other Derby junior high school girls model their own creations in a fashion show presented recently before the Derby P.T.A. From left are Wendy Isherwood, Janet Brown and Vicki Kyle. Along with the fashion show, parents viewed industrial arts, art department and additional home economics projects completed by students. New PTA officers introduced at the final meeting were A. Marriott Walker, president; Thomas C. Heydon, father vice president; Mrs. John O. Wilkinson, mother vice president; Alan B. Wagoner, teacher vice president; Mrs. Robert A. Green, recording secretary; Edwin Beyer, treasurer, and Mrs. John R. VanderRoost, corresponding secretary. Photo by Maurice H. Smith.
