Franklin Femmes Train For the 'Batter Up' Call

FRANKLIN—There's really nothin' like a dame... even though for years girls have been relegated to the sidelines while their brothers hogged the limelight in baseball.

But, things are gonna be different, yessiree!! In Franklin, this week, six girls teams of about 12 players each will begin practice for the new softball league sponsored by the Youth Committee of the Franklin Community association.

Headed by Mrs. Myles Gallagher, who has the assistance of Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. Louis Evans, the girls, all the way through to the eighth grade, are limbering up to show the world that they can wield a bat as good as any male Little Leaguer.

Swamped by 115 registrations last week, from girls in Franklin, Walnut Lake, Wing Lake, Derby and even Bloomfield high school, the committee has Mrs. William Worcester, Mrs. John Memmah, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Arthur Marshall, Mrs. Thomas Lepine and Mrs. Robert Hickman as managers.

Starting the first of June, games will be played every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, either at Franklin school or the church diamond. During the remainder of the school season, games will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. and during the summer.

During the vacation period games will be played at 10 a.m. For the time being, plans are made up to July 17. If the demand continues, extra games may be scheduled later.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bristol are heading for Rochester, N. Y., this weekend to see daughter Gayle receive her diploma at Eastman Dental school as a full fledged dental hygienist.

Twenty-seven Franklin Boy Scouts participated in the District I Camporee at Hixson Recreation area last weekend and copped three blue ribbons and a couple of ones for camping skills.

The spring court of awards has been postponed to June 8 when scouts who have earned badges and attained new ranks will be honored at ceremonies.

Since the growth of the community has made holding a joint court of honor for Franklin's girl scouts impractical, each troop is making plans for an individual ceremony.

Despite the rain and a smoky cook-stove Troop 352 spent the weekend at the camp near Lapeer with leader Mrs. William Chapoton, Mrs. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Gordon McAlpine.

As their contribution to the campsite, they built two log benches and assisted in the creation of a fire pit for future troops to use.

Most of the girls will receive their first class badges next month.

For the 45th session at Camp Arbutus, a sizable contingent from Franklin is preparing to leave. Judith Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell and a student at Beloit, will be sailing instructing there shortly after.

Chat 'n Cha Cha Cha!

FRANKLIN—No doubt about it... Franklinites have a good time dancing or talking. Sometimes they do both. Snapped candidly at the Spring Dance held last Friday by the Franklin Community association are Pat Byers and his partner chatting with Mrs. William Madalin and Peter Garwood while Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCardell get the beat. Surprisingly enough, this year's dance bestired relatively few people, only about 75 attended the annual event.

Franklin Slates Sept. 19 Art Show

FRANKLIN—For the first time in many years, Franklin will have its own art show on Sept. 19, Round-up Time. An outdoor Arts, Crafts and Hobbies show is being sponsored by the Franklin Community association to fill a need for a well rounded community calendar and providing interest for adults attending the day long event. To be held on the village green, the show will include examples of painting, sculpture, crafts, such as silversmithing and jewelry design; hobbies which may range from quilting and flower arranging to woodworking projects, and a children's arts and crafts section. The work shown will all be done by area residents. The committee which met at the home of Mrs. Irma Davis urges volunteers to join work on the project, by contacting either Mrs. Davis or Albert Carr.
