

Meadowlake Residents Host Party for 90-Year-Old Dad

BLOOMFIELD WEST—The year 1869 marked the completion of the first transcontinental railroad and the beginning of the road of life for Varice LaPlant.

Sunday the Detroiters celebrated his 90th birthday at a family party at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaPlant of Meadowlake road.

GATHERED AROUND the agile gentlemen were his six children, 11 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. Cocktails preceded dinner with the piece de resistance a three tiered pink frosted cake with white roses trailing upward toward an old man with a cane which topped the confection.

SON FRED LA PLANT with his wife arrived from California. Also on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Francis LaPlant and family as were their three daughters and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lanouit (Deila), Mr. and Mrs. James Grizell (Clara) and Mr. and Mrs. Helge Charbonneau (Anna).

Two Bloomfield Women Really Scout Leaders!

BLOOMFIELD WEST—A record of volunteer service in the Girl Scout program can be credited to the two women whose efforts have contributed to the Scout program at Walnut Lake.

They are Mrs. Lee D. Hanson of Putnam road and Mrs. J. R. Roberts of Lakeshore road. Mrs. Hanson, with 15 years of service, is at present serving as chairman of the Southern Oakland Training Committee and Mrs. Roberts, with eight years of service, is neighborhood chairman and leader of troop 360.

Both women attended the Southern Oakland county meeting, held May 20 at Ferndale High School, to hear Ray Hayes, of the General Relations staff, speak to the delegates on "Selling Scouting."

On Monday, May 25, Mrs. Hanson explained council structure to members of senior troop 360, who are required to know the administrative function of the council. The meeting was held at Mrs. Roberts' home on Lakeshore road. An art exhibit May 27 culminated ed six weeks of diligent application to palette and brush by 13 members of troop 735 at last Wednesday's meeting at the Walnut Lake school.

Under the skillful tutelage of Mrs. Floyd Layman of Bloomfield glens road, drawing and painting requirements were earned by Liz Trzos, Lydia Murray, Janet Habrie, Marsha Gregorich, Karen Hofnagle, Susan Holmes, Patty Dierkes, Marcia Mullen, Caroline Marx, Joyce Smith, Donna Layman, Nancy Keller and Nora Koskinen.

The exhibit will be presented again next fall to Mrs. Middleton's troop 753 to inspire similar efforts by the new crop of budding artists. Mrs. O. E. Koskinen mounted the paintings for the exhibit and Raymond McManhan of the Walnut Lake Food Market, contributed the poster and cardboard used.

Walnut Lake Gardeners Plan June 1 Picnic, Tour

BLOOMFIELD WEST—The June 1 meeting of the Walnut Lake Garden club will combine a fried chicken picnic lunch under the trees at the home of Mrs. Ross Danker and a tour of member's gardens.

Mrs. William Loll and her committee will provide the food for the picnic. Helping Mrs. Loll are Mrs. Joseph Blak, Mrs. Ed. Chudik, Mrs. Kenneth Crumb, Mrs. Herbert Dunham, Mrs. Ed. Nightengale, Mrs. Reginald Pellow, Mrs. A. P. Roberts, Mrs. Richard Bergmann and Mrs. E. T. Hangstefter.

Three members who will show their gardens are Mrs. Neil Lund, Mrs. Otto Winkelman and Mrs. Stewart Schultz.

Carol Vine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vine of Maple road, made National Junior Honor Society at Derby junior high school last week.

A birthday party, honoring Mrs. Zoe Copeland and hosted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jack R. Copeland of Beverly road was given May 19 at the residence of Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm of Valley Spring drive.

Thirty-nine guests were served at small tables centered with tiny watering cans filled with miniature daffodils.

During the party, a surprise gift of five-dozen American beauty roses arrived for the guest of honor from her business associates.

The stark will be having over the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hamilton of Telegraph road. The mother-to-be was entertained at a luncheon May 17 at the Walnut Lake home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hippel.

Guests included Mrs. Mary Singer, Mrs. Mary Woods, Isabelle Krupp, Mrs. Carol Carter, Marge Cantalupo, Mrs. Mary Hamilton, Dolores Pizzuti, Maryann Howell and Mrs. Donna Schneider.

Mrs. Lynn Barber hosted a cocktail-dinner party last Thursday at her Eastnor road home honoring Mrs. L. Kaal of Dearborn who will leave soon to make her home in Hillsdale.

Guests included Mrs. L. Allen and Mrs. D. McIntyre of Dearborn, Mrs. A. Hall of Garden City, Mrs. A. Carr of Livonia and Mrs. F. Barlow, Mrs. W. Copeland and Mrs. E. Scall of Redford.

John C. McNeerney To Graduate From West Point

WEST POINT, N. Y.—John C. McNeerney, 21, son of Colonel and Mrs. Joseph A. McNeerney, 31819 Auburn, Beverly Hills, will be graduated June 3 from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y.

McNeerney will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the artillery branch and will receive a bachelor of science degree. At West Point he was active in the ski, chess and pistol clubs. He was a member of the Catholic cadet chapel societies.

Appointed to the academy by former Senator Edward J. Thye (R-Minn.), McNeerney was a cadet sergeant during his senior year.

McNeerney, whose father is a 1920 graduate of West Point, is a 1955 graduate of St. John's College, Washington, D. C.

Chalmers Lake Boy Celebrates Birthday

CHALMERS LAKE—Bob Jessup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jessup of Wing Lake road, celebrated his eighth birthday Saturday with a luncheon-theater party for eight of his friends.

Guests were Verne Pokorny, Lun and Gyl Stanford, Joe Kolly, Steven Ness, Billy Golling, Fred Jeffers and Kevin Bordinat.

International Flavors

WALNUT LAKE—They're going around the world for dinner at Walnut Lake school PTA's fair Saturday, June 6. Serving a list of foreign dishes headed by English roast beef will be (from left) Mrs. Donald N. Aiken in Mexican costume, Mrs. Carl H. Morse, English; Mrs. E. T. Hangstefter, Jr., French; Mrs. Wendell E. Lloyd, Danish, and Mrs. Elliott O. Neff, Hawaiian. About 25 other waitresses in foreign costumes will join them to do the serving, assisted by Girl Scouts. The fair opens at 1:30 p.m., with dinner served from 5 to 7 p.m. Mrs. Aiken, PTA mother vice president, is chairman of the dinner. The menu also lists Italian spaghetti, Danish pastry, American potato salad, Hawaiian fruit salad, Mexican beans, Alaskan salmon and French salad.

WALNUT LAKE—There'll be plenty of scenes such as this one at Walnut lake school playground this summer when a day camp program provides recreation, games, craft instruction, and free refreshments for children in the area. Under the tree helping a group of children with clay sculpture is Mrs. Joan Boemer, Walnut lake school teacher, who will be on hand daily at the playground.

Playground To Become Summer Day Camp

WALNUT LAKE—A day camp program for all children in the Walnut lake area, regardless of whether or not they attend the Walnut lake school, is being inaugurated this summer.

The program will run from 9 to 12 daily, rain or shine, Monday through Friday each week beginning July 6 and ending Aug. 14. The school gymnasium will be available to the day camp on rainy days, through the cooperation of the Birmingham school district, co-sponsors with Walnut Lake PTA.

Free refreshments are being provided through Twin Pines milkmen

Rates are $7 for three weeks, or $12 for six weeks.
