DAC's May Festivities Start Friday

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the Detroit Athletic Club will join other members of the area for the DAC's May dinner-dance and floor show festivity this Friday through May 14 at the club.

Leading the floor show program for the six nights, excluding Sunday, will be Florian ZaBach, TV concert and supper club violinist. Completing the entertainment will be Tony Marks, a magician with comedy, who styles himself the "Aristocrat of Deception". Clyde Crane, Jr., Philip F. DeBeauvoir and Thomas J. Bolton are Birmingham members of the entertainment committee in charge of the week's events. Dinner is slated to begin at 7 p.m. with dinner-dancing from 7:30.

AMONG THOSE of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, with table reservations for Friday's opening are the John C. Kinsels, the John Flannerys, the William Spierels, the Lester Downies, the Charles Wiggins and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Pearce.

Holding reservations for following evenings are the W. J. Winks, the W. C. Ahlers, the James Cummins, the Elliott Kinneys, the Ralph Zimmermans, the George Fischers, the Roland Mewherts, the Bernard Zinns and the R. C. Allmans.

MARGARET McARDLE

Trith Reveals Summer Wedding

Announcement has been made of the engagement and July 25 wedding plans of Margaret McArdle and John George Mattimore.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State university, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. At the present time she is teaching in the Birmingham school system.

Her father graduated from the University of Detroit Law school. He served as a lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps, and is now an attorney in Toledo, Ohio.

Margaret's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry McArdle of Ionia, Mich. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mattimore of Toledo, Ohio.

Unit Meetings Set for LWV

"You know it's the jet age," announced the League of Women Voters in previewing its May units on foreign policy, "but do you realize that China is no longer the Far East? It's the Near North, because now we're flying there over the North Pole."

Presented as a culmination of a year's study on "A New Look at Foreign Policy," the LWV foreign policy committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter Jackson, will send different committee members to lead the discussion before the five LWV units.

B'ham Branch Sets Monday for Meet

Birmingham branch of WNFPA will hold its annual meeting at 12:45 p.m. Monday at the Birmingham Community House. Mrs. Albert Allmayer will present a program entitled, "Flower Arrangements for 1959."

Mrs. Walter Anderson is general chairman assisted by Mrs. Harold Chapel, Mrs. Morgan Layton, Mrs. W. L. Troutfelter, Mrs. W. J. Lambert and Mrs. Ralph Zimmermann. Chairman of the day is Mrs. Harvey Bushnell.

Kappa Delta Alums Install Officers

A candlelight installation ceremony will be Tuesday for the newly elected officers of South Oak and Kappa Delta alumnae association. Mrs. J. A. VonEberstein, 5622 Bernbridge, Royal Oak, will be hostess to both the afternoon and evening groups of the sorority at 8 p.m.

YWCA Sponsors Free Workshop

High school girls planning to do recreational work this summer have an opportunity to learn the skills and techniques they need in a free workshop sponsored by the YWCA May 23 at Central branch YW from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
