Artists to Exhibit Serigraphs in May

During the month of May the Little Gallery will exhibit an outstanding collection of graphics from the Pratt contemporary galleries and serigraphs from the Western Serigraph Institute.

This show will be in conjunction with the Birmingham Art Festival and will afford the public an opportunity to see and appreciate the work of contemporary artists in a highly colorful and extensive array of art forms.

Among the artists whose serigraphs will be exhibited are Howard Bradford, Dorothy Bowman and Dean Mesker. These artists are represented in many museums, public institutions and private collections.
