KKG Alum's Pot-Luck Supper

Kappa Kappa Gamma North Woodward evening alumnae group will hold installation of officers at a pot-luck supper meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gordon Rollins, 5681 Westwood court, Bloomfield township.

Officers elected are Mrs. J. C. Siegesmund, Jr., chairman; Mrs. Frank Huff, vice chairman; Mrs. Charles Storm, secretary; Mrs. James Bryant, treasurer; new directors, Mrs. W. E. Ludwig and Mrs. F. G. Gyrill. Mrs. Siegesmund will also present a report on the Kappa national convention held recently in Indianapolis, Ind.

B'ham Girls Exhibit Life Drawings

Julie Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Walton of Berg road, and Barbara Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Walton of Pine Hill drive, will exhibit life drawings, oil paintings and terra cotta sculpture at the first-of-its-kind art show at the Scarab club May 10 through 14.

Julie is a sophomore majoring in social science; Barbara is a sophomore art major at Mercy college. All previous art shows exhibiting student work have been on campus at Mercy college.

Couple Married In Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Rogroot of Fall River, Kan., announce the May marriage of their daughter, Patricia, to John S. Townsend, Jr., in Washington, D. C. He is the son of the senior Townsends of Chestnutfield drive, Birmingham.

The groom attended Birmingham schools and is now serving with the U. S. Navy in Washington.

Talent Show Set

Instead of the student operaetta originally scheduled, a talent show will be presented at the regular PTA meeting on May 12 at 8 p.m. Also on the program will be installation of PTA officers for next year. Board members are urged to attend a special meeting after the PTA meeting.

Girl Scouts' Annual 'Neighborhood Roundup'

Three hundred Bloomfield Hills girl scouts of Eastover, Vaughn, Wing Lake and Pine Lake schools, met at the East-over school for their second annual "Neighborhood Roundup" on April 25.

A flag ceremony including 30 friendship flags, a cookout of Scouts and Brownies and games were enjoyed by the 21 units. Committee members assisting Mrs. James Sterling, neighborhood chairman of the Bloomfield Hills Girl Scouts, were Mrs. Raymond Mattson, Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. John Conde and Mrs. Elmer Flaxton.

"Down on the Farm" the Cub Scout pack B14 project for the month, was displayed in many different ways at the Eastover school on April 27. The Cubs of den 2 were the narrators of the work projects and the entertainment that followed at the meeting.

Cubs entering the Webelos were Ron Rubel, Jon Simmons and Mike Kelso.

The Webelos and their dads of the Eastover Scout troop B14 attended a "stag" double header at Briggs Stadium with the Tigers vs. Yankees on Sunday afternoon.

Robert E. Girardin, director of Birmingham Recreation Board, will be the guest speaker at the Harlan school PTA on May 12. He will discuss the various recreational activities available to children and families.

New PTA officers elected for the coming year include Paul Metzler, president; Bill Lyman, father vice president; Mrs. Robert Marker, mother vice president; Mrs. Joseph Hainline, recording secretary; Mrs. Harvey Mackey, corresponding secretary; R. J. Farr, treasurer; Mrs. Lee Butler, historian.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seibel, program; John Sutton, membership; Robert Heffernan, institutional representative; Mrs. James Mimura, health, safety and juvenile protection; Mrs. Glick Harboza, hospitality. The positions of publicity, library committee and others, will be filled by September.

Bridgid Mary Dunn, six week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Dunn of Oakhill drive, wore her mother's Swiss christening dress at a baptism in Holy Name church on April 19. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ireland of Grosse Pointe.

A family supper followed the service at the Dunn home. Present were relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Kellener, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clements, and Wendy Farhall of Grosse Pointe, and Madeline Clements of Birmingham.

The Simon Duanas' other children, Brian and Deirdre, joined in their brother, Kevin's "first party" celebrating his third birthday on the afternoon of April 17. Other Thornwood children enjoying the cake and ice cream were Scott Reid, Bob and Bill Prust, Greg Heins and Jerry Peterson.

Karen Warstler, daughter of the Floyd Warstlers of Bolingbroke drive, made her first Holy Communion on April 26 at Holy Name church in Birmingham.

A buffet supper followed at the Warstler residence after the service. Among the 36 relatives attending were the Floyd Simmons family of Birmingham.

The Tom Nichelsons, Jr. of W. Orchard Hill drive are home again after spending the last month touring the west. Their first stop was in Tucson, Ariz., where they visited Nichelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nichelson, Sr., for two weeks. Four days were spent in Los Angeles, visiting the John R. Tuckers, who lived in Hickory Heights until last May when they left for the west coast. Las Vegas

City-Country School Plans Open House

The public is invited to attend an open house at the City and Country school of Bloomfield Hills for gifted children on May 17 from 2 to 5 p.m. The event will be a family affair with recreation planned for the children.

Adults will have an opportunity to tour the school's facilities and to talk with the teachers and exhibits of the children's creative work will be on display. George Rooper, director of the school, will give a brief talk concerning gifted child education and a short film about the school will be shown.

Nursery school for children 2-5 years, will be open under supervised care for the "youngest" visitors. Supervised outdoor activities on the 11 acre grounds will provide fun for the older children. In case of bad weather, indoor activities are planned.

Evening of Cards For Zonta Members

An evening of cards will be enjoyed by members and friends of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Zonta club beginning at 7:30 p.m. May 14 at Hospitality House in the Concourse at the rear of Hudson's Northland.

This event is one of many promoted by Zonta club to raise funds for local philanthropy. Members will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Hazel Welch, Tuesday to wrap prizes. Tickets are available through members.
