To Appeal City Court Conviction

Richard J. Wilson, 1969 Riverside, Beverly Hills, is appealing a Birmingham municipal court conviction on a charge of driving under the influence of liquor.

A jury found him guilty Friday, and Judge John Emery fined Wilson $75 plus costs. Wilson is free on a $150 bond. His attorney Bernard Girard is filing a petition to appeal the conviction in Oakland county circuit court.

A complaint was filed by William E. Kindley, 1988 Graefeld, claiming that on March 3 a car driven by Wilson, struck his car at Adams and Maple roads.

Kindley told police that Wilson made a wide left turn from Adams onto Maple and struck his car head-on while he was waiting to make a left turn.
