Franklin Ballet Students To Give Recital Sunday

FRANKLIN—The colorful and eternally delightful Alice-in-Wonderland fantasy will be presented Sunday by the ballet pupils of Franklin's own Miss Sue.

Starting at 8 p.m. in the little gym at Cranbrook, families and friends will see three acts of Lewis Carroll's fairy tale. Archie McCordell portrays Carroll in the prelude.

A complete story in ballet, the recital climaxes a year of study with Sue Roseberry, 19-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry of Wellington road.

Among the featured dancers and soloists are Laurel Stebbins, Beth Ann Kanfer, Kathy Carnahan, Mary Bates, Linda Roberts, Judith Bartleson, Nancy Altmanberger, Kerry Kopp, Linda Beskema, Petra Kahn, Betty Seibert and Courtney Davis.

Others are Cheryl Carso, Quannah Winshell and Miss Sue, herself.

With a list of budding ballerinas too long to print here, the recital will also include Miss Sue's ballroom dancing class doing the cha-cha, fox trot, polka, rock 'n roll and the tango.

Sporting a glorious tan and a haven't-come-down-to-earth yet look are the Stan Hunters of Colony Hill, just back from five weeks in Hawaii.

Their prize trophy is a certificate awarded to Stan Hunter, a fisherman. He landed a 32-pound Mahimahi (dolphin) more than four feet long.

Home also are the Don Hackers who spent five weeks at their Florida home near Naples. Daughter Rouzine, returned after two weeks to continue her studies. Luckier children David and Donna enjoyed the full period.

The Franklin Garden club will meet tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaynes on Hickory Lane. Mr. Lineas, a people speaker, will be the guest speaker.

Picking a gorgeous weekend, about 50 members of the Senior Youth Fellowship attended a retreat at Clear Lake Camp.

To alleviate concern of those who may have in a solitary figure digging in vacationing neighbors, Mrs. Evelyn Taup confesses she was the one. Determined that "bare-root" flowering crab trees ordered from the WNFCA should be heeled in with no delay, Mrs. Taup personally distributed them and dug some in at the proper addresses while others were away. Rain or shine, the goods were delivered.

Franklin Villa Players will meet May 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Van Dyke on Franklin road. Along with the election of two new board members for three year terms, the group will also be entertained with Shakespearean skits prepared by several casts of Junior Players under the direction of Mrs. John Baker and Mrs. Don Odie.

Candidates for the board jobs are Mrs. Harlow Bates, Sally Roseberry, Phil Price and Archie McCordell.

Mrs. Emil Bates spent last weekend in Ann Arbor at the Delta Gamma house as a member of the class of '29 of the fifteen Delta in her house. Mrs. Bates was one of seven to attend the 30 year reunion.

A reminder that the Mr. and Mrs. club will be having an evening of fun bowling at Star Lanes on Northwestern Friday night. Mrs. Kenneth Bailey and Mrs. Wendell Lloyd have been taking reservations and making plans for another gay get-acquainted night.

Granted special permission by the New York Botanical gardens, the Franklin branch of the WNFCA planted a new hybrid variety of "99 of the fifteen Delta" in her house. Mrs. Bates was one of seven to attend the 30 year reunion.
