

Again we live in the midst of a season of great physical change, as summer merges with autumn and the latter embraces winter. What a truly wondrous visitation this is each year; what incredible proof that there is evidence, always, before us that a PLAN, a CAUSE, a CREATOR does control all within, even far beyond, the perception of mankind! . . . yet man is part of it all.

Opening Night At Pine Lake CC

It was a big night at Pine Lake country club Saturday when members and guests attended a dinner-dance to celebrate the opening of their new club house. Greeting Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Taylor (middle) contractors of the club house, are (from left) Mrs. William J. Tehoy of Valley Hill drive, Bloomfield township, Mr. Tehoy, and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Shanahan of Eastmoor road, Birmingham.

They Could Have Danced All Night—And Nearly Did

. . . Like A Club House Should

Admiring the best tasting club house in town are Pine Lakers (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Chris L. Sloman of Castle drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles P.

Livingston of Sodon Lake, Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Sloman is on the board of directors and Mr. Livingston is president of the club.

Hostess Gone . . . But Party Goes On

Things were not without a touch of humor when 30 Republican women met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jean S. Greene, 312 Lake Park drive, Birmingham.

In addition to being the meeting hostess, Mrs. Greene is also serving as temporary chairman of the group which is laying final plans for the formation of the Birmingham-Troy Republican women's club . . . but the hostess and temporary chairman was among the missing!

DUE TO AN unexpected call out of the city, the charmed hostess was unable to attend the meeting in her own home. Mrs. Franklin Butler of Westwood and Mrs. Clement Fentore of Waddington substituted as hostesses for Mrs. Greene and Mrs. Allen A. Strom filled in as temporary chairman.

Alpha Phi Meeting

Mrs. John Drummond is entertaining the Detroit North suburban chapter of Alpha Phi at her home on Cranbrook road, Nov. 17 at 8 p.m. Program for the evening will be a toy demonstration by Mrs. Wheeler. Co-hostesses are Mrs. John Eckehrode and Mrs. S. P. Malone.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Audience Lauds Pianist

The lovely Bloomfield Hills home of the John J. Raymonds of Trowbridge road was the scene Sunday evening for a buffet supper and reception in honor of Ruth Slenczynska. Miss Slenczynska is celebrating her 25th anniversary as a widely acclaimed professional artist.

She has played in more than 700 concerts in Europe, North and South America. Monday evening she staged a remarkable demonstration in Oak Park with the South Oakland symphony orchestra. This concert gave a taste of the ability which has won her international acclaim. Henri Nosco conducted the first subscription concert. The society announces that the season passes are a complete sell-out.

BIRMINGHAM AREA people attending the Sunday evening reception given by the board of directors of South Oakland symphony society were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Berry, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Dr. and Mrs. Palmer Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Koeneke, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dickenshield, Mrs. Worthington Stone, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hohmeyer.

At Real Estate Convention

In Toronto at a convention of the national association of real estate brokers are Mr. and Mrs. Owen E. Hall of West Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dunn of Worlington drive, Fred W. Pierce of W. Long Lake road, Mrs. Nell W. McGoogan of Villa road, Mrs. Sally M. Alta of Kimross drive, Philip A. Hall of Birchwood drive and D. MacNeil Miller of Pontiac.

Mothers on Hand to Help

Busy, busy, busy are the mothers of the girls at Bloomfield Country Day school, who are working on the November book exhibit and fair at the temporary home, Birmingham Unitarian church on Lone Pine road. The exhibit will last three days, Nov. 15-17. Aileen Saarinen, author of "Frood Possessors" will be on hand Sunday afternoon to autograph her book. Sylvia Cooper who recently wrote "Thunder Stone" will also be there.

'A Whirling Good Time'

"Getting to Know You," will be the theme this evening when members of the Woman's auxiliary to the Wayne county medical society attend a supper-dance at the Lath Quarter. This gala affair is to serve a three-fold purpose . . . to bring together the members of the tri-county medical societies for an evening of fun and fellowship plus the raising of funds for the auxiliary's projects; nursing scholarship. American medical education foundation contributions and the purchasing of a language master machine for the deaf and hard of hearing children at the Stevens school.

Planning to attend from the Birmingham area are Dr. (See SUBURBAN SCENE, Page 5-C)

'Forest Lakers Having A Ball'

Forest Lakers were in gay spirit Saturday evening at the President's Ball. This was the gala event of the fall season honoring Bernard Girard and his lovely lady. Taking a break in between dances are (from left) Watson Kinney of Village lane, Farmington, Mrs. Donald Green of Nottingham drive, Mrs. Donald Hacker of Colony Hill road, and Mr. Green. Among the highlights of the evening was a ribbon-cutting ceremony for the official opening of the new bar and grill room (champagne and the trimmings followed).

Marygrove Mothers Guild Schedules Sunday Meeting

Sunday, the Marygrove college mothers guild will conduct a general meeting in alumnae hall on campus. As a special attraction, Mrs. John Hering, style co-ordinator, will present suggestions for party tables, which are workable for people entertaining without help.

She will feature a Christmas buffet and a luncheon table as well as actually setting the tea table used that afternoon. She will also discuss table decorations for parties given throughout the year. An annual Christmas auction will be held that evening. Hostesses will be Mesdames C. Myrold and J. Obey.

Extension Meeting

Birmingham Extension unit of Oakland county extension service will meet Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. L. H. Barber of Eastmoor road. Mrs. A. T. Iverson will present a program on "Good Design." An annual Christmas auction will be held that evening. Hostesses will be Mesdames C. Myrold and J. Obey.

Jr. League Members Discuss Project

Birmingham Junior league members met yesterday in group meetings at several of the members' homes. Purpose was to discuss a new project for the group. Homes opened were Mrs. Clark Alberts, Phoebe Otter, Mrs. John Fauver, Mrs. William Breech, Mrs. Richard Wallace, Mrs. Nicholas Martin, Mrs. David White, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. James Vandusen, Mrs. Charles Perry, Mrs. Roy Letch, Jr., Mrs. George Lowden and Mrs. Donnell Matthews.

BOARD MEMBERS who led discussions were Mesdames: Charles Lynch, Ralph Gelsinger, Frederick Booth, William Baldwin, Peter Higbie, William Bachman, William Davis, William Barney, Maxwell Matthews, D. P. Smith, Sidney Smith, Clark Alberts and Miss Phoebe Otter.

Engineers' Wives

The Society of Engineers' wives spoke at the Rackham Memorial building. The Rev. Elmer B. Usher (luncheon meeting was yesterday church.)

Committee Members at Work

"The Angels Sing" will be the theme of Birmingham branch of WNFCA's 22nd Christmas show in December. The show will start at 2:30 to 9 p.m., Dec. 2, and 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Dec. 3. Committee members at a Tuesday meeting are (from left) Mrs. Carman Adams of Fairfax road, Mrs. Mathew Cammareri of S. Adams road and Mrs. Aldo Patria of W. Maple road. Mrs. Herbert A. Carr is general chairman of the Christmas show.

Music Lovers Assemble

Mrs. John J. Raymond (left) of Trowbridge road, Bloomfield Hills, talking to Ruth Slenczynska at a Sunday evening reception in Monday evening at Oak Park high school for an appearance with the South Oakland symphony orchestra. In deep conversation are (from left) Mr. Raymond and Henri Nosco, symphony conductor.