Woman's Club's Departmental Meetings Set

The departmental groups of the Birmingham women's club will meet Tuesday. The Literature group will meet at the home of Mrs. F. W. DuBois for a dessert luncheon; Mrs. Carl Binkle will be the program chairman introducing Mrs. Earl Potter who will give a book review. The American home group will meet at the home of Mrs. John M. Milroy, 32300 Bingham road. The program will be "History of Man's Language" by the Telephone company with Mrs. T. E. Foote, chairman for the day. The Fine Arts department will make a tour of Camp Oakland with luncheon at Villa restaurant.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes from Nancy Porter

News for this column may be phoned to Mrs. Porter between 8 and 9:30 P.M. at MI 4-2880

Dr. and Mrs. James R. Quinn of West Valley road, entertained for cocktails last Saturday evening preceding the Inaugural Ball at Pine Lake country club. Since the occasion marked the formal opening of the new building, the dinner-dance was a gala black tie affair.

After months of planning, renovating and enlarging, Pine Lake Country club has a new look and a great many new facilities for large scale entertaining.

The Quinns' guests were Dr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer, the couple, I. Cole, Robert J. Dunlap, the Jack Habels, the Ralph T. Norrells, and the William D. Thomases, all from Pontiac, Dr. and Mrs. Norman F. Geringer, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Holloman, of Bloomfield township.

This coming Saturday, before the St. Dunstan's Guild party in which the Pavilion on Lone Pine road will be turned into "The Last Chance Saloon," the Frank P. McCartney will be entertaining at a potluck supper for some of their "best" friends including Mr. and Mrs. William K. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Ruben, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bahr, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Altman, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Brennan, Mrs. Robert C. Newmann, and Maurice Smith.

Also planning to attend the St. Dunstan's party Saturday are new members Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Himehloch of Lakeside drive, who returned last Friday night from a week in New York. They stayed in the Maurice apartment hotel and attended quite a few shows.

Other new St. Dunstan's guild members are Mr. and Mrs. Comerford W. McLoughlin, (relative newcomers to Birmingham who purchased the North American drive home of the Martin R. Swifts, themselves former St. Dunstan's Guild members now living in Dallas, Tex.), Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Otis, Jr., Mrs. Andrew J. Shepard, Sally Lawlor, Margaret Kevorkian, Mary Lou Bernecker, and Charles N. Campbell.

At the Nov. 18 bridge luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country club Mrs. James C. Zeder of Orchard Ridge road, has made reservations for 12 guests.

For a pre-Thanksgiving family reunion the W. Whiting Raymond of Willis street are presently visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Getz, Jr., of Shaker Heights, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Getz will leave before Thanksgiving for a two-week vacation in the Barbados Islands.

Mrs. James S. Fenwick of Woodland street has recently returned from a ten-day visit with her daughter, Mary Kathryn, who is a senior at the University of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lorenz of North Glenhurst drive spent a recent weekend in Cleveland. They had a chance to visit with former Birminghamites, the Charles Duffys, at whose house two of the Lorenz children—Bob and Joann—had spent the night.

Mrs. Joseph E. Wellman of Fal-mouth drive, returned yesterday from two and a half weeks in Portland, Ore., where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Fairchild.

Mr. Wellman had returned a few days before from a ten day trip to Pinehurst, N. C. He and several other men from this area make an annual trek there for a golf outing.

Other Birmingham area men who accompanied him were John upon a pride of lions who had just killed a gnu.

They visited King Solomon's mines and saw the men of the Watussi tribe, who are all seven feet tall.

From the Belgian Congo, she flew to Brussels, to London, and then straight through to Detroit.

Mrs. Aaron H. Webster of Fairfax road, entertained the members of her book club for luncheon yesterday, showing them color slides of the recent European tour which she and Mr. Webster took.

Thursday Luncheon Scheduled for Newcomers Club

Guest speaker at the Nov. 19 luncheon of Birmingham Community House Newcomers club will be Laurens Fringle of the Detroit Free Press. A fashion feature writer with a daily column in the Free Press, Mrs. Fringle will speak on "The Importance of Dress in Detroit."

Having just returned from a trip to California to review the casual fashions market there she will have the latest news in this field for Newcomers members and their guests.

Mrs. Scott Dickson, president; Mrs. Anthony Wines, membership

Auxiliary Meeting

The Women's auxiliary to the Oakland county dental society met at the Kingsley Inn Tuesday for their monthly meeting.

chairman, and Mrs. William Fry, hospitality chairman will welcome members during the hospitality hour from 11:30 to 12:30.
