Barnum JHS These Gals Passed the Bicarb Test!

By THE PRESS CLUB

Each year Mrs. Judy Conlon's eighth-grade homemaking classes hold a cake contest while studying the cake unit in cooking. Every girl bakes a cake at home from scratch then brings it to school, hoping she will win "Grand Prize". This year Janice Malone's hopes were fulfilled when the judges, Mr. Malcolm Tindall, Mr. Tom Horan, Mr. Nick Labadie, and Mr. Jim Bini, awarded her cake "Grand Prize."

'Crack . . . Plop'

Some of the boys were warming up at Derby Junior High. Jim Blodgett (pitching—his back to the camera), 1911 Crosswick, and Tom Brooks (batter—to the rear), 1028 Hazel, engage in unseasonable sports during last Thursday's unseasonable 70-degree weather. Tom's bat is hidden behind Jim who reaches for one that Jim just connected with. Hidden somewhere behind Tom is catcher Lou Turf, 1567 E. Maple.

FOR DECORATION, Susan Patrick took first place and Janice Malone second. For taste, Candy Heusser and Camilla Warnick, respectively took the first two places.

The students of Barnum Junior High School wish to thank the merchants, parents and teachers for the wonderful Halloween party Oct. 31. It was by far the best all-city party we have ever attended. The turn-out was more than expected, and it was really a success. Thanks again for an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Dorothy Nelson, faculty sponsor of the Mapeionian, Barnum's yearbook, has announced this year's staff. Working together as co-editors are Tom Montgomery and Brooke Hinkley; assisting them is Pam Outman.

THE REST of the staff are: Barb Vass, class picture editor; Sue Watson, Holy Knox and Cynthia Demers assisting her; Kim Bateman with Kathy Thompson and Sue John assisting him as activity picture editor; boys' sports, Dick Laula; girls' sports, Ann Norton; music, Ellen Webster; service groups, Charles Sutherland; clubs, Karen Fiel; other activities, Julie McCain.

Bob Gantner is business manager; Bob Williams, advertising and general assistant, and assisting the assistant are J. C. Stevens, Don Robinson and Dave Kennedy. The staff promises to put out a bigger and better yearbook than ever before.

The All-star game between Derby and Barnum was Nov. 6, at Seaholm High. This game was the most exciting because the winner would win the series of all the all-star games.

IN THE early minutes of the game Barnum went to score and make the extra point and take the lead 7 to 0.

Again in the second quarter, Barnum scored and made the extra point to take a good lead 14 to 0. The eighth grade game with Derby was strictly defensive, with neither team scoring a point in the entire game.

In preparation for the eighth-grade production a cast party was held at Sue Hick's home from 1 to 5:30 p.m., Oct. 31. Sue Hicks and Claudia Kessler were the ninth-grade student directors.

DRAMATIC director was Miss Lyla McCormick. The play, with a cast of fourteen, was given in the Barnum Junior High auditorium from 8 to 9 p.m.

The audience was entertained before and after the first act by the Barnum orchestra—under the direction of Mr. Dale Bartlett. Barnum's open house, sponsored by the P.T.A., will be Thursday evening Nov. 12, from 8 to 10 p.m. It is designed to give parents an opportunity to become acquainted with teachers as they follow the child's schedule for the regular school day. The ninth-grade choir and the club are providing entertainment during both lunch hours.

'No Smoking' Signs Didn't Seem to Work

The student congress is planning to put the S.G.R. system back into operation. The S.G.R. system is a hall monitoring system designed to cut down on the amount of smoking that goes on in school.

The system is going to be run more tightly this year. A committee, headed by Chuck Coffin, will screen, very thoroughly, the students who wish to serve on the S. G. R. force.

THIS IS TO eliminate any students who smoke, because it has been observed that these people have a tendency to smoke on the job.

Under a new set of rules, if a student is caught once, his car sticker for the parking lot (if he has one) is removed permanently, and he is suspended from school for one week.

If the same student is caught again, he is suspended for two weeks. If he is caught once more, he will be permanently suspended from school.

SEAHOLM HAD its annual P.T.A. open house last Tuesday night. The parents of Seaholm students assembled in the gym and heard a short address by Principal Ross Wagener, after which they attended their son's or daughter's classes.

The usual six hours are ten minutes in length, and in this time the teachers explained, briefly, the course of study and its objectives. After this, the parents and teachers met informally in the Magic Room for refreshments. This meeting gave the teachers and parents time to converse more directly.

THE 1959 Piper has received the Columbia University medalist rating in the annual Columbia scholastic Press association yearbook competition.

The Piner was awarded 950 points out of a possible 1000 and beat the 1958 Piper by only one point. In fact, the Piper has won this award four times in the last six years.

THE DON Thomas Sport Shop furnished the clothes and the members of Schuss-masters modeled them. Thirteen members of the ski club modeled the newest things in ski apparel to the rest of the membership recently.

Included in the show was a package deal for the members of Schuss-masters when they buy ski outfits.

This was the first project of the club this year, and when the snow flies, the Schuss-masters will be out on the slopes trying their new outfits.

THE JOSTEN ring company visited the school last week to offer school rings to the juniors and seniors who missed ordering them last year. The sophomore class will order their rings later in the year.

With the changing of the school name came the subsequent changing of the school engraving on the ring. However, students who have been at the school for a year or more can still order the older model with Birmingham High School on it.

However, when it comes time for the sophomores to order, only the Seaholm high school ring will be available to them.

Two Officers are NMS Semifinalists

CULVER, Ind.—Two Birmingham-area youths are among the ten Culver Military Academy cadets who were named semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

They are James N. Pytkas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard V. Pytkas, 27440 Goldengate, Lathrup Village, and Larry M. Stolberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Stolberg, 816 Pierce, Birmingham.

Jim is a cadet captain and commander of Battery A at the northern Indiana college preparatory school. Larry is a lieutenant and executive officer in the infantry.

... But Not for Long

Temporarily downed by powerful spirits is Bill "Bro" Adams of cub pack B-31. The brave warrior is overcome by medicine men in the Apache Devil dance, staged by the Quarter PTA at its recent meeting. Among the unidentifiable medicine men are Charles McQueen, Bob Marks, Rob Holm, John Quart and Anby Bureleigh.
