

'Cool' Man Plays-up Warm Storm

Looking very much like mor and charm, "cool" French French comedian Jacques jazzman Bernard Peiffer blew Tati, and exuding warm hu- into the Birmingham area last week.

He then proceeded to play up a slight storm at Cinema 14, Clav- son.

PEIFFER was classically educated and his music shows it. His piano improvisations range from progressive jazz sounds to shades of Beethoven, Chopin or Mozart. Peiffer is the only jazz musician ever to have won the international Jazz award twice. In this country since 1956, he made a hit at the 1957 and 1958 Newport jazz festival.

Newlywed Wrobels Travel to New York

A simple country church was the setting of the October solemn double ring ceremony for Deanna L. Dufault and Theodore T. Wrobel.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Dufault, chose a dull-line and lantern sleeves, its full cote satin-scoop neckline dress skirt sashed with satin. She carried a fitted bodice applique with Venice lace. The dress line and orange nudes, and yellow roses, a Princess silhouette with Venice lace motifs on its full bell skirt.

HER ITALIAN colifore was peeked with a lily white seed-dress of silver blue slipper satin, beaded Swedish crown. Her spray bouquet consisted of bud white roses, stephanotis and trails of ivy.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wrobel of Birmingham, asked his brother, John, to be best man.

Honor attendant was Jeannine M. Dufault, sister of the bride. SHE WORE a laurel green silk
