SOCIETY

Newcomers Schedule Yule Ball

Highlighting the holiday season for Birmingham Newcomers will be the Christmas Glitter Ball . . . a dinner dance on Dec. 5 in the penthouse ballroom of the Hillcrest Country club.

Cocktails will be served in the lounge at 6:30 followed by dinner at 7:30. Mrs. Eric Hougberg, chairman of the dance, has innovated a buffet dinner for the affair this year.

THE USUAL glow of the holiday season will be heightened by the glitter and gleam of the decorations worked out by Mrs. Ray V. Gilbert, chairman, and Mrs. Jack Baker, Mrs. Donald King and Mrs. Frank Starr.

An evening of music, dancing, conversation, greeting old friends and meeting the new, is in store for all Newcomers and their guests. The club, sponsored by the Community house is designed to help establish friendships among those residents new to this area.

Women's Guild To Sponsor Party

Deserving students will benefit from a card party sponsored by the University of Detroit women's guild. Proceeds will augment the Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Foley scholarship fund, which since its inception in 1952, has aided many of the university's students to continue their education.

The card party will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday on the student union building on campus. Refreshments will be served. Some of the Birmingham people attending will be Mrs. and Mrs. James J. Hayes Jr., of Summerville line and the Harlan Longways of Kenneway drive.

Professional Club Plans Meeting

A meeting to consider the organization of a business and professional women's club in Birmingham was Nov. 12 at the Birmingham community house.

The second meeting will be at 8 p.m. Monday at Greenfield. Guests are invited to attend the dinner meeting. In charge of reservations is Mary Trambush, 128 E. Nine Mile road, Hazel Park.

Salvation Army To Clear Yule Baskets for Needy

Do you think your family may want to present a Christmas food or clothing basket to an indigent family in this area?

Please clear or obtain the family's name with the Salvation Army. It was advised by Charles Metzger, director of the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin council on community services.

The Salvation Army's agreed to act as clearing house to avoid duplication of requests. Metzger explained. The "Winter SA" office will handle the area above 14 Mile road, while the Royal Oak office will keep track of families south of 14 Mile, according to Metzger.

Kappa Deltas Meet

The afternoon group of the Kappa Delta alumnae will meet today at the home of Mrs. John S. Hamilton, 868 Eastover, Birmingham, for a 12:30 luncheon. Mrs. Walter Barningham will be co-hostess. The group will make favors for the annual Christmas party at the Oakland county crippled children's society.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.
