

'Cher Chez This Femme,' Moxley Says

Descriptions of the greatest traffic killer in Michigan, who last year caused the deaths of almost 500 people, have been posted throughout the state.

Named only as Too Fast Con, the police posters warned all drivers and pedestrians to be on the alert for this highway killer who fails to adjust driving speed to adverse conditions of road, weather or traffic because of ignorance, bad judgment or impatience.

TOO FAST Con is the second in a series of characterized traffic law violators the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police is calling attention to as drivers who are "Unwanted in Michigan."

In police accident records, Too Fast Con is short for "speed too fast for conditions."

Police Chief Ralph Moxley of Birmingham pointed out that the problem with this traffic law violator is not high speed but rather "excessive" speed in a particular situation which calls for a reduction of speed in order to maintain control of the automobile.

"TOO MANY of our otherwise good, law-abiding drivers think that if they stay within the posted speed limits of the community, or the state speed limits of 55-50 miles per hour on the open highway, they are exercising due caution," said Chief Moxley.

"Unfortunately, though these drivers think they are legally correct, they may be violating the law which insists that speed be reasonable and proper. Conditions of road, weather and other traffic often change the speed requirements of what is reasonable and proper at that time and in that location," Chief Moxley pointed out.

400 Invited to Take A Look at MSU-O

A special trip has been planned for the next meeting of Derby's PTA.

Parents and teachers will have an opportunity to visit a new and interesting educational facility, Michigan State University-Oakland, on Jan. 7. The PTA members will be guests of the faculty and staff for the evening.

A tour of the buildings and a question and answer period, followed by a social hour in the MSU-O cafeteria are on the agenda.

The first 400 registrations will be included on the Jan. 7 trip. If the registrations exceed 400, a second trip will be organized.

The Brothers Norris Are a Busy Family At Indiana University

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Three brothers from Birmingham are neck-deep in activities at Indiana university.

Clifford Norris, senior, and Philip Norris, junior, have received "Little 500" scholarships. These scholarships for working students come from the proceeds of an annual bicycle race.

CLIFFORD has received a Distinguished Military student rating in the Army ROTC, and Philip is treasurer of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Clifford Norris, freshman, has pledged Beta Theta Pi, and is a candidate for freshman class vice president.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Norris, 1720 Dorchester, Birmingham.

She's in 'Poli Sci' And in Journalism

ALLIANCE, Ohio — Anne R. Shilts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shilts of 1235 Dorchester, Birmingham, has been named assistant editor of the Unionian, the yearbook of Mount Union college, for the 1959-60 school year.

A political science major, she is a member of the Student Christian association, and is on the staff of the campus newspaper.

Military Honors in His Sophomore Year

John J. Godfrey, a sophomore at Niagara university, New York, is now a member of the "Pershing Rifles"—an honorary military society.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Godfrey, 2441 Turner road, Bloomfield township, he is a member of the Order of the Eight Regt. The society was founded in 1801 at the University of Nebraska, by the then 2nd Lt. John A. Pershing.

In Orphean at Lasell

NEWTON, Mass.—Marilyn Ashlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ashlock, 2020 Middlebury, Bloomfield township, now a member of the Orphean club, 200-voice choral society at Lasell junior college, where she is a dietetics major. The group appears annually at Symphony hall, Boston, in "Lasell Night at the Pops."

'Man, This Can be Work'

Four boys put the pressure on in the difficult creative process. They are members of an art class taught in the Birmingham community house after school by Mrs. Shafer. The members of the class plan an exhibition in the near future. The young painters are (from left): Charles Berels, Wayne Ferstle, Harold Pierce, and Henry Herpel.

Southfield High Letters for Scholars Excellence Recognized:

Thirteen seniors at Southfield high school received letters of commendation this week for their performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test given last spring. The 13 were among 27,000 United States students who ranked in the 95th percentile on test results, but not high enough on raw scores to be considered semi-finalists. Southfield has already announced the names of six semi-finalists.

LETTERS OF commendation were awarded to Diane Kruop, Bruce Ferrey, Gloria Sauer, Kathy Leighton, Judy Morken, Kay Plumtree, Tom Spear, Michael Goodman, Norman Follak, Charles Ross, Robert Sims, Kathleen Watson and Leonard Spier.

The six semi-finalists who will be retested in December are Judy Krollen, Dennis Smallwood, Terry Clark, Don Symons, Bob Knighton and Howard Handelman.

A candy sale will be the first fund raising project for Southfield's sophomore class. The group will sell "Sandies" candy, a special mixture of Titans and Butter Scotch Bark from November 20 to 30.

PROFITS FROM the drive will go into the sophomore treasury and into individual accounts to help defray the group's senior expenses in 1961-62.

Audience participation will be the feature of Southfield's senior class play, "Night of January 16th," Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 20 and 21, in the school auditorium.

A student trial, the play is a drama-comedy written by Ayn Rand. Members of the audience will be picked as jury members and will actually render a verdict as they see fit. Those desiring jury duty will verify their ticket stubs.

Directed by Mrs. Virginia Berts, the play will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Three Southfield high students—Helen Schoenhalz, David Ross and Darin Muir—will tour the British Isles and Europe this summer as members of the Michigan Chorale, it was revealed this week.

The 68-student group will be directed by Lester McCoy, conductor of the University of Michigan Musical society. The chorale is sponsored by the Ann Arbor-Wahtenau Council of churches and the Michigan Council of churches.

Selected for the chorale by audition and personal qualifications are the three local students who will rehearse on Saturday evenings until the June to mid-August trip begins. The group will give programs in Ireland, England, Holland and Germany.
