Earl Stanfords Heed
The Call of the Islands

WING LAKE—After seven long months of planning, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanford and their son Jimmy of Worlington are just about ready to start the biggest adventure of their lives.

The day before Thanksgiving they will leave Wing Lake for their first trip to Hawaii—but they won't be back for they plan to live somewhere in the islands. The Stanfords will motor through the west, stopping to see sights in Phoenix, Las Vegas. When they reach Los Angeles they will board a jet plane and fly to Hawaii.

With Honolulu their headquarters, they will take their time exploring the islands and will later purchase a home at the spot they like best.

FOXGROFT—Mrs. Robert Birney of Orchard Way entertained members of her A.W. book group last evening at their monthly meeting.

FOXGROFT—Linda Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Barton of Orchard Way celebrated her tenth birthday Saturday with a luncheon and movie party.

FOXGROFT—Spending the past week in East Lansing was Ken Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd D. Allor of Sandy Lane. He stayed with Dave Gallivan and attended the football game on Saturday.

WING LAKE—When Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doucet of Sandy Lane entertained friends at dinner recently the menu was truly in the very elegant gourmet class. Just

Harry Seigels Return From Hawaiian Trip

NORTH ADAMS—The Harry Seigels of Butternut Hill drive recently returned from a three-week Hawaiian trip. They boarded the Lurline luxury liner in Los Angeles for the five-day voyage.

Much of their time in Hawaii was spent touring the outer islands. A few days were spent on Waikiki and then on to Maui where they made the Hana Maui resort their home. They enjoyed browsing through the interesting shops on their visit to Honolulu before their flight homeward.

The William Jaenichens of North Adams spent 10 days recently touring some of the western states. On their trip they stopped off at Lincoln's home at Springfield, Lake of the Ozarks and the arsenal at Rock Island, Mo. The Garth farm in Iowa was another visit of interest. They also visited the state universities during their travels.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was the vacation ground of the Cyril Maxwells of Hylane drive for the past 10 days. The Maxwells are avid golfers so spent daylight hours on the golf course at the resort and at Greensboro and Pinehurst, N. C. On their return trip they stopped in Ohio to tour the Blenko Glass works.

Mrs. Frederick Oliver of Hickory Heights drive is well known throughout the North Adams area. She has been the Welcome Wagon hostess greeting new residents in the area for the past seven years.

Taking over her duties as the Welcome Wagon representative is Mrs. Elmer Weber of Patch drive. Mrs. Weber and her family have lived in Bloomfield township for the past year. They have two children, Carl E. attending Eastover school, and Carol Ann, 3.

Mrs. Weber would appreciate calls from North Adams residents on newcomers in the area.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Koehler of Far Hill drive are anxiously awaiting the Thanksgiving weekend when their son, Bill, will be home on his holiday vacation from Purdue university.

Dr. Koehler's mother, Mrs. W. E. Koehler of Mt. Clemens, will spend Thanksgiving day with the family.

Thanksgiving week houseguests at the Kermit Peeds of W. Orchard Hill drive will be Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Von Gunten of Fort Wayne, Ind. Mrs. Peed's parents,

The Paul Johnstons of Holingbroke drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Southworth, house guests from Syracuse, N. Y., a few days last week.

Each year for the past eight years the David DeWitts of Tuturum lane and the G. B. Myers of Columbus, Ohio, meet for the weekend to attend the Ohio State University of Michigan game.

Five B'field Village Couples
Attend New York Convention

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—The village was well represented at the national convention of the tool and die association held recently in New York.

Among those who attended the meetings, luncheons, cocktail parties and formal ball were Mr. and Mrs. David Bechtold, Mr. and Mrs. William Fortin, Mr. and Mrs. William Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Maul and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kraus.

Mr. and Mrs. Kraus left a bit early on Saturday and arrived home just in time to receive 20 dinner guests who came to celebrate tiny Mark's first birthday.

Mrs. E. W. Jolly of Yarmouth entertained mothers of girl scout troop 354 at a get-acquainted coffee last Thursday. Mrs. Jolly is leader of the troop and her assistant is Mrs. D. F. Christman.

Awards were presented to seven cub scouts Friday when pack B-16 met at Bloomfield Village school. A wolf badge was presented to John Dykstra, a bear badge was presented to Bill Hermann and Tom Olson was awarded a bear badge and one gold and two silver arrows.

Robert Sheldon received a gold and silver arrow, Jeff Baldwin a silver arrow, Tom McKenney a silver arrow and Dick Stegmann a gold arrow.

Members of pack B-16 recently visited the Sagebrush Shorty show

Loyal Lathrup Family Gets That 'TV Drive'

LATHRUP—Proving there's nothing like family loyalty, the Linn W. Hobbs family drove all the way to Brighton to watch daughter Linore on a television station not usually seen in Detroit.

Linore, a national merit scholar, Paul Bagwell with a panel of student winners, is now a member of the freshman-sophomore at Michigan merit scholarship tests.

The family dash to Brighton was made when it appeared to be the only spot nearby that received Channel 10. The television set acted up so that when there was picture, there was no sound and vice versa. Switching from sound to picture, the Hobbs got the general gist of the program, and a few polioroid pictures to show they were there.

Linda Albright, Martha Schneider, Sharon Spicer, Jennifer Kathleen Burnett, Evelyn Dally, Cynthia Slaughter, Phyllis Gleason, Sandy Thorpe, Pamela West and Kathleen Whiting.

Guests at a luncheon given by Dr. Ursula Bleifuss last week were Mrs. Webster Owen, Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, Mrs. Ernest Goodwill, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. William Hayes, Mrs. L. E. Flann, Mrs. George Rostow, Mrs. John L. Barrett and Mrs. B. E. Poe.

Special feature of the luncheon was a black forest cherry torte prepared by Dr. Bleifuss from one of her native recipes.

YOU'LL WANT TO SEE THIS!

WE WISH we could show you a picture of every room in this house—each is a gem of exquisite detailing and lovely decorating.

IF YOU ARE PARTICULAR about quality workmanship, deluxe equipment and fine features, you must see this home.

CONTEMPORARY in STYLING, the rooms are large and the family living areas open to each other and overlook two outdoor patios—wonderful for entertaining—yet there are charming secluded little corners plus a beautiful paneled library. There is a Dining room. There are two fireplaces. Basement—yes! The Kitchen with the best of equipment and the Breakfast room are a "dream".

GORGEOUS SLOPING SITE—almost an acre—simply beautiful landscaping and trees—sprinkler system too—Country Living close to the City. Furthermore, there is a "view" from every room.

WE COULD go on and on but we believe no words will do justice to this home and if you are a discriminating buyer and want to be really "house proud",
