'Fight, Fight, Fight!' They Did, and Liked it

There was rejoicing on the debate teams Thursday after they had won the majority of debates at the first official round that took place at Royal Oak-Kimball high school.

The teams that successfully met the tough competition presented by Royal Oak-Kimball were the varsity affirmative, reserve affirmative, and the reserve negative—three out of four decisions in our favor.

THIS WAS the first official debate of the year on the part of the teams. Resolved, that the Federal Government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions.

It seems as though the month of preparation for the debates finally paid off in a big way. For the past weeks, teams have been gathering evidence and material to use in the various cases and plans, and by the time the week of the debate arrived, the debate class had reached a fever pitch.

Now, in the eyes of the teams, things are beginning to look really promising.

ONE OF THE main goals this year will be to receive the trophy that is circulating among several schools, for permanent possession. In order to win this trophy, a school must receive the trophy three times. Seaholm has received it twice, and needs only one more successful season.

However, it is interesting to note that we aren't the only school that is out to retire the trophy this year.

Gloria Mendoza, exchange student from the Philippines, presented a dance from her country called the Thinking, or bamboo poles dance. It is the imitation of the flight of the diking bird of the Philippines.

Jean Ferry, contact presented a folk dance of southern France called the Farandole. The Farandole, danced on certain holidays, is very similar to the American square dance.

While Teacher's Away . . .

"I mean, like—what's this long-hair stuff, man?" moans drummer Clark Pardee as Denise Noonan tries to inject a serious note into a fourth-grade jam session at Harlan school. Instructor Larry Franklin, obviously, was out of the classroom at the time.

Some "cool" music livens up a class at Harlan school as Stewart Mitchell plays piano and Dave Ewing squeezes some "way-out" sounds out of his "lecorice stick." Fourth and sixth graders, respectively, they are pupils of Larry Franklin.

still containing pictures and stories supplied by the Viscounts, a lead- of all the present classes. Here and there, in an effort to raise funds for the sophomore class treasury, a dance was held at the school Nov. 20. Music was we have much to give thanks for.

Plan More Activities — 'High-Y' Coming up

A very important and welcomed organization is being forwarded at the high school. A new chapter of a familiar group, the High-Y, is now being established.

The chapter will have as advisor a local parent, Mr. Albert Blumefeld and will be financed by the Bloomfield Lions Club. The purpose of the organization is to offer students, planned recreation and the school year-book.

It has been decided that BHHS seniors will spend their time on the class trip in both Washington, D.C. and in Williamsburg, Va. Altogether, some four days will be used next spring, but the exact costs are not known.

All those who plan to go must place a $25 deposit with Lynn Marshall, class treasurer, before Dec. 1.

THAT, PLUS $5, have most of the seniors in a bad way. Sophomores and juniors are not without money problems of their own.

A full-scale sales drive is under way to sell the 1960 Hitcrest, this year's annual publication. This year's edition centers around the theme of BHHS's 25th graduating class, the class of 1960.

THE BOOK will go back and trace some of the old alumni, while
