

'Drama in NY' Is Topic at Library Talk

The Friends of the Baldwin Library are having as their guest speakers at 8:15 p.m. Tues. Dec. 1 in the library auditorium, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Stephenson who will talk to them in a joint presentation on "The Current Drama Season in New York." They will be introduced by Mr. Charles Kana.

The Stephensons invited to return to the Birmingham area due to the warm reception they received from the University of Michigan alumnae.

Their drama talks are filled with humor and rapid-fire comments on plays and people. This program will be especially appropriate for those in Birmingham who follow the Detroit, New York, or London stage productions.

STEPHENSON completed his work for his Ph. D. at the University of Michigan and is well known by the students of the last decade. While in the service in signal intelligence he acted with Thornton Wilder. He teaches at the National Music camp, directing their dramatic productions and is the director of the Gilbert and Sullivan society on the Campus of the University of Michigan.

Lacy Chase Stephenson is the daughter of Preston W. Slosson, professor of history at the University of Michigan and is the mother of four children.

Throughout the year the Friends of the Library sponsors a series of presentations. Membership is open to any who wish to share the opportunities and the sociability during coffee hours following the lectures.

The Board of the friends works with Miss Jeanne Lloyd, the director of the library, to plan better service.
