Men's Night Is a 'First' For Osage Club Women

NORTH ADAMS—The Osage WNFGA members will chalk up another "first" on their achievement list when they escort husbands to the Birmingham community house Dec. 1 for "men's night".

After dinner the lead speaker, Edwin W. Hard of Detroit, accompanied by Mrs. Hard will show a movie entitled "African Safari". Mrs. Cyril Maxwell, program chairman of the club is being assisted by committee members: Mrs. Oscar Oldberg, Mrs. Donald Richardson and Osage president, Mrs. Warren Wood.

The Sherman McDonalde of Hickory Heights drive will join members of their family at the Sidney Straight homestead in Ann Arbor for their traditional Thanksgiving day dinner. The Kenward Hentze family of Highland Park, the Ted McDonald family of Berkeley and the Lee Hoard family of Kalamazoo, will also be attending the gathering.

Visiting the Leslie Keelers of Orchard Hill drive for the week is Keeler's mother, Mrs. Charles Keeler of Ithaca. Spending Thanksgiving day with the Keelers will be relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beattie and sons, Tom, Jim and Stephen.

The Robert Rareys of Hickory Heights drive are joining relatives, the Robert Crislers of Birmingham and the Charles VanNarwick of Royal Oak, for a Thanksgiving day family reunion dinner at the home of Mrs. Rareys parents, the I.H. Lees of Royal Oak.

The Lees are leaving soon for Florida, where they are planning to make their home.

Mrs. Jacqueline Edmonds and daughter, Karen, of Birmingham, will be Thanksgiving day guests at the W. Leonard Fyfe home on Walnut Hill drive.

Visiting the Roger Gaskills of Far Hill drive during Thanksgiving week are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gaskill of Danvers, Mass.

Have You Met . . .

The H. Raymond Foxes of Sioux Falls, S. D., newcomers to Oakhill drive? They have two sons, Robert, 16, attending Seafoam high school, and James, 12, a student at Deby junior high. Fox is in the marketing department of Ford Tractor and Implement division of Ford Motor. Their interests include gardening, traveling and ice skating.

The Lee Hubers of Far Hill drive are also looking forward to Thanksgiving houseguests for the week. Their guests are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huber, Jr. and daughter, Kim, and Mrs. Harold Huber, Sr. of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. James Herbert of Rock Spring drive and Mrs. William Hassard of Satterlee drive, hosted an evening "not-so-quieted coffee" recently at the Hassard residence. The 28 attending were all residents of the new Hickory Heights subdivision.

The John Evans of W. Orchard Hill drive have been transferred to Chicago with Remington Rand and will be moving there this week. They will make their new home at Lake Bluff, a suburb of Chicago.

Members of a Hickory Heights monthly bridge club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Rarey of Hickory Heights drive.

Those attending included Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. John Kohl, Mrs. Frank Balogh, Mrs. Donald Douglass, Mrs. Herman Corneman, Mrs. Fred Trickey and Mrs. John Letz.

A "California wine party" was hosted by the Harold Halls of Meadowlane drive an evening last week. The guest speaker, a representative of the California Wine Co., gave a talk accompanied by samples of cooking with the many different kinds of wines.

Sampling the wines were members and their husbands of the Birmingham alumni of Stephens college. Neighbors in Hickory Heights also attended to learn the secrets of cooking with wine.

The Amos Halls of Clarence, Mo., parents of the Harold Halls of Meadowlane drive, will be spending Thanksgiving here with the family.

Three new homeing troops have been formed at the Harlan school in the past month. Leaders and co-leaders of the troops made up of third graders are Mrs. Paul Metzler of Charming Cross road and Mrs. John Mitchell of Longmeadow drive; Mrs. Donald Hayward of Tullamore drive and Mrs. George Voelker of Haddington drive; Mrs. Mike Perington of Brookdale, Mrs. Marvin Danto of Brookdale drive and Mrs. W. H. Sivy of Paddington road.

The Harlan girl scouts of troop 981 made a tour of the Windrow farms an afternoon last week, giving them credit on their badge work. The troop consisting of sixth graders were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Alva Bush and co-leaders, Mrs. Richard Melcher and Mrs. Lawrence Gilley.
