SOCIETY

Theatre Group To Present 'Ricky Tick'

The Children's theatre group of the Junior League of Birmingham will begin its fall trouping schedule on Monday. This schedule includes the 14 elementary schools in Birmingham, and three in Rochester.

The play selected, "Ricky Tick" was written by Jerry McMechan for the children's theatre group. Because "Ricky Tick" has a circus setting, both costumes and scenery are very colorful, and the action is lively. The play was given in the spring to schools in the Pontiac and Royal Oak areas, and was received with enthusiasm by both children and faculty members.

Man of the group, arranges the trouping schedule with the various schools. Directors are Mrs. William Breech and Mrs. Wesslau Wright.

Responsible for scenery, properties, transportation and costumes are Mrs. William H. Klenke, Mrs. Donald F. Taylor, Mrs. Robert W. Scripps and Mrs. Leslie P. Durgin. Members of the cast are Mrs. Franklin Butler, Mrs. Everett E. Fisher, Mrs. E. Wendall Breland, Mrs. John K. Armstrong, Mrs. Lewis F. Saxby, Mrs. Frank Allen and Mrs. Andrew Shepard.
