Program Couldn't Help Much, Here

A program wouldn't have helped much at the championship game between the Boilermakers and the Hawkeyes Saturday morning. It was easy to tell who had been in the game and who hadn't as Ross Elyer (17), Dick Lowrie

(20) and Mike Reynolds (24) show the affects of a muddy field. Jim Keegan (30) hasn't had a chance to play yet, but he went into action a few minutes later and matched his teammates' muddy appearance.

Country Day Gets One Week to Rest

With a week off and a chance to scout their next opponent quite thoroughly this week end, Detroit Country Day's Yellowjackets are still smarting over last week's loss to Indianapolis.

Indianapolis scored twice in the second and once in the fourth for the win.

ICD WAS stopped three times inside its opponents' 10-yard line and the team committed many "mental" mistakes.

Prime example of this was in the second period when a Yellowjacket back intercepted a fourth-down enemy pass on his own one-yard line.

If he had simply knocked it down, the local squad would have taken over on its own 35. A fumble two plays later on its own six-yard line, led to another enemy TD.

The Yellowjackets could do nothing right while Indianapolis did everything right and the final result was a 20-0 win for the host team.
