B-B-F Council Gets Report on Youth

A general report of the youth in Oakland county was given in the recent report to the board of directors of the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin Council on Community Services.

Our youth are seeking employment with some working in street cleaning, domestic work, farm work and working directly with their parents.

Anti-social behavior exists among our youth of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area. There were 202 juvenile arrests made by Birmingham police in 1957.

Three Hurt In Traffic Accidents

Three persons, one a pedestrian, were injured in Birmingham traffic accidents last week.

The TRUCK, driven by Robert Louis Burton, of Royal Oak, kept coming closer to the side of the street, Mrs. Melusky told Birmingham police.

TWO WOMEN were slightly injured when Donald R. Polling, 26, of Farmington ran a yellow light at the intersection of Maple A.

MRS. HEUER was listed under the name of G. H. Campbell in the phone book under the name of American Women.
