

'round the towns news The Birmingham Eccentric

BEVERLY HILLS • BINGHAM FARMS • FRANKLIN • WOODCREEK FARMS • LATHRUP • BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP • WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP • SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP • SOUTHFIELD CITY

Dr. Lurkins Has Long-Time Patient in Scout Troop B-11

By NITA HARD Franklin Correspondent
FRANKLIN—Sometimes it's like pulling teeth to keep up a good scouting program, year after year.

In sub-zero temperatures for crews of dads and lads working on the bi-annual paper drive... DR. LURKINS HAS BEEN the manager and booking agent for Franklin's own Camp near Lapser.

participated in the building of Camp Lapser, have moved from the village or become inactive... A WELL-PLACED josh now and then was as essential as muscle to the placement of the crude joists.

and in his favorite role.
SOUTHFIELD—Football spectators at Southfield high school, if they're not more than 18 inches tall, will soon find 1530 comfortable new seats.

Ditch Area Owners Ask Go-Ahead on Cleanout

LATHRUP—At a special meeting of the Lathrup council Monday evening, the old question of the Evans Ditch was rehearsed by council members, the Steinfurth committee and property owners along the stream.

Gas Company Cannot Build, Board Rules

FRANKLIN—Consumers Power company is denied their request to build a regulator station on lot two of Heiman Woods, the zoning ordinance which ruled following a hearing Sept. 21.

Bloomfield Postpones 3rd Station

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The township will not get its third fire station built before spring, according to Homer Case, township treasurer.

Seatcover Specialist

BEVERLY HILLS—Stacks and stacks of stacks of diapers... BEVERLY HILLS—Stacks and stacks of stacks of diapers... BEVERLY HILLS—Stacks and stacks of stacks of diapers...

Demand for Hogan Exceeds Supply—2 Quorums Suffer

Bloomfield township Trustee Henry Hogan, Jr. could have signed himself twins Monday night... Hogan, who had been assured that his presence would not be necessary for a quorum at the township board meeting, was attending a meeting in Berkeley...

2nd Subdivision OK'd In Month By Township

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—After an hour and a half delay in getting its meeting started because of a lack of quorum, Bloomfield township's board cleared up an agenda which included approval of a 57-acre subdivision, first hearings on two sewer projects, and a resolution to rescind a ban on sprinkling.

Helps College Fund

EASTON, PA.—J. L. Hindenbach, 15961 Lauderdale, Beverly Hills, was presented as president and chairman who helped collect $170,144 for the Lafayette college new arts-science-engineering institution during the 1958-59 year.

Hills Schools Board Buys 16-Acre Site

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—At a special meeting Monday night, the Bloomfield Hills board of education voted to complete purchase of an elementary school site, and awarded an insurance contract covering school bus operation.

Area Water Officials Attend Convention

SAGINAW—Homer Cass, water superintendent of Bloomfield township, and Harold Schrone, director of public works for Oakland county, were among 200 water utility leaders who participated last week in the annual three-day meeting of the Michigan Section of the American Water Works association.

S'field Buys Bleachers For Stadium

SOUTHFIELD—Football spectators at Southfield high school, if they're not more than 18 inches tall, will soon find 1530 comfortable new seats. School board officials approved the $13,571 purchase from Standard Steel Supply Co. Monday night. Delivery is expected within 10 days.

Talk of the Towns

By JULIE CANDLER
How would you feel if your taurant and saw something bedded in the dough?
A very polite lady from Lathrup who refrained from making a fuss about it when this happened to her. She wrapped the little wad of dough in a Kleenex and slipped it onto her butter plate, so that the sister with whom she was eating wouldn't see it.

60 Hear Details On Township Sewer Plan

Sixty interested members of United Home Owners association were present at the organization's meeting last week to hear a discussion on township sewer development.

S'field Purchases DPW Equipment

SOUTHFIELD—Southfield recently purchased five pieces of department of public works equipment totaling $2,884.

Thank You Very Much and Charge It Please

WESTCHESTER—A dog's life is not so bad, if he has a charge account with the ice cream cone man. So says Bingo, whose owner, Mike Pokorny, is on duty with the Navy in North Africa. It all started late last summer when Angelo Timonte, the Sanders man serving Westchester Village at the Pokornys home, 3111 Middlebury Lane, and asked for 62 cents more than the bill. His explanation? "While you were away," he told them, "Bingo begged for and got five cones. I just put them on your account." Of course Timonte got his money. But Bingo keeps charging. The Pokornys hope Bingo doesn't become too social and start setting up rounds for his pals. They may have to cur-tail his credit!