WESTCHESTER—Mr. and Mrs. Irving P. Marabke of Middlebury, Lane were hosts at an open house Saturday honoring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leonard of Detroit on their golden wedding anniversary.

Breakfast at the Rooterhall for the immediate family followed music at St. Cecilia Catholic Church, Detroit.

At the open house they were hosted by some 200 friends and relatives from a bubbling champagne fountain.

Adding their congratulations was a daughter, Mrs. Vaughan Summerville, her husband and two daughters of Detroit; a son George Leonard; and another daughter, Mrs. Roger LeGris, her husband and three children from Dearborn.

Enjoying the day with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard was her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Morrow, and a brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gene DeMara, all of Cheboygan, and her sister, Mrs. Ida Riggs of Detroit.

Driving down from Port Huron was another sister, Mrs. Edith Georoux and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeMara.

Leonard's brother, Joe with his wife and daughter of Flint also attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard were married in Cheboygan in 1909.
