Lathrup Woman's Club To Hear Oct. 5 Lecture

LATHRUP—Lathrup Woman's club will open its 1959-60 season Monday presenting Mrs. Philip Gentile, adult educator and lecturer of the U. of M. Extension Service, who will speak on, "Human Beings Being Human."

Mrs. Gentile has been an observer at every General Assembly of the United Nations in New York and will return to Detroit just before speaking Monday. She has been a member of the Speakers' Research Committee for United Nations specialized agency meetings in Rome, Geneva and Paris. Monday's tea will have an international theme honoring three exchange students from Indonesia, Austria and the Philippines.

Twelve new Woman's club members will be introduced at this meeting by Mrs. H. Walter Reed, membership chairman.

Marcia Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Phillips, 28210 Eldorado, was elected first class president of the new freshman class at Marian high school.

The new school opened on Sept. 8. Names of the members of the first class were placed in a sealed vault and placed in the cornerstone of the building.

Now that he has retired from his postmaster duties at the Lathrup post office, Dave Redwood and his Mrs. feel free to do a little traveling. The Redwoods reported in Sunday evening from a trip up in Canada. They visited relatives in Orrilla, Fenelon Falls and Montreal and report the fall coloring all through Canada as just beautiful at this time.

Dividing their three weeks vacation between Worcester, Mass., Newcastle, Dela., and New York City, the Fredrick D. Johnson returned to Lathrup Sunday afternoon. In New York the councilman and Mrs. Johnson viewed performances of "Red head" and "Gypsy." Their trip home carried them along the famous of Mohawk Trail, spectacular at this time of year for fall coloring.

Franklin Girl Scouts To Sell Calendars

FRANKLIN—Intermediate and senior girl scouts will be taking orders for the 1960 girl scout calendar this week, calendar chairman Mrs. Paul Rieker announced Monday.

To be delivered Nov. 6, calendar sales support the general camping program with each troop getting a small share of the profits for its own use.

Secret Service Meeting Has Dandy Destination

NORTH ADAMS—There is much enthusiasm when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watt, Jr. of Pine Hill drive and Mrs. Frank Watt, Sr. of Satterlee drive speak of their recent trip to Hawaii.

They flew to San Francisco where they spent two days sight seeing before going on to Honolulu to attend the World Secret Service Association Convention.

Returning to the continent in September, they visited relatives, the Earl Johnsons and the Martin Veldens of Los Angeles, before departing for home.

The Wilford Bobbers, Jr., of Eastover road experienced the thrill of their first jet ride to California recently. Four days were spent touring San Francisco and visiting Mrs. Aldridge Johnson a relative of Bobbers. In Los Angeles, they visited Bobbers' uncle, Carl Madson, before leaving for two days in Las Vegas.

The Shawnee Tribe of the Indian Guides was organized in the Eastover school area last spring. Their first fall meeting was Thursday at the Lyle Oviatt home on South Redding.

The enthusiastic group include, braves and little braves, Rodney and Rocky Ackerman, Edward and Craig Brown, John and Stephen Ball, Lyle and Mike Oviatt, and the chief and little brave, William and Chuck Route.

Among the many activities planned for the coming months are a canoe trip, family picnic and an Oct. 10 campout at Camp Ohioyes. The tribe is still open to new members. Those dads and kids interested may call William Route of Robson lane for more information.

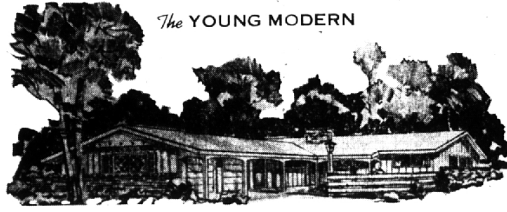

A "Husband's Cookout" received the seal of approval from the wives as the chefs cooked everything from steaks to hamburgers in the Pine Hill drive garden of the George Robbs an evening recently. After the barbecue movies of their recent trip to Hawaii were shown by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Doig of Lathrup.

The 13 couples attending are members of the Ruth Auxiliary of Westminster Presbyterian church in Detroit and have been meeting monthly for the past ten years.

THE RIGHT COMBINATION of Design and Location

"Superlative" is the word for this 1958 masterly bi level, set in tall trees. The interior has 4 bedrooms (two being master size), 4 baths, a powder room plus a lav. Especially delightful is the family kitchen, paneled in oak with a ledgerock fireplace. On the lower level a family room is large and complete with sink bar and fireplace. Everything is the finest including price, $65,000. Such a house defies description, demands a personal visit.

Taste and skill is the architecture in this new bi-level with a colonial air. Paneled lower level recreation room has built-in cabinets, a refrigerator with the bar, fireplace, and access thru doors of Thermopane to the valley. On the main floor, a casual area adjoins the paneled kitchen. 4 bedrooms (two with adjoining dressing rooms), 3 baths, also a powder room. The area . . . Lone Pine Road Estates.
