"Trick or treat"

Sure, there's fun in sharing, particularly on this magic night when neighborhoods echo to the shouts of half pint ghosts and goblins. This year, in Birmingham, each of us will have a chance to share our Halloween fellowship beyond our own block.

The League for the Handicapped is selling "Begging Bags" in which the youngsters can conveniently tote home their loot. They cost just 59 cents and can be used as litter bags when Halloween is past. You'll help your kids, keep our city clean and, most important, help the handicapped to help themselves. Come in today—or order by phone if you wish.
