

The Birmingham Eccentric

52 PAGES THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1959 BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN SECTION A

Serving the Citizens of Michigan's Finest Suburban Residential Area

A great variety of talents is given to human beings, running the gamut from everything that head and heart can fashion...

82nd YEAR—NO. 33

Seaholm Seniors take first at Field Day. For a picture page of the activities see section B.

Antique Lovers it's homecoming time. See page 1-C.

Ferndale's Field Goal ... was illegal, game films reveal. For the story see page 8-E.

You 'Auto' See This ... the automotive roundup, a special section in this week's Eccentric.

INSIDE THE ECCENTRIC
Amusements 4-C
Bits of Birmingham 4-B
Business Briefs 3-D
Campus News 3-B
Church 6-B
Down to Earth 5-B
Editorials 8-B
Nature Now 8-A
Real Estate 8-E
Round the Towns 8-E
Sports 6, 7, 8-A
Woman's News C, D
Want Ads 6, 7, 8-A
Youth 8-A, 8-D

This and That

By George R. Averill

Quiz Shows on TV Cost Less Than Political Ones

Were you disappointed, disillusioned, even piqued when you find that many of the TV quiz programs were "rigged"?

Does not the candidate, speaking to you in behalf of getting your vote, gush forth with his "answers" to most important questions of the day?

Perhaps the only real difference between the "rigged" TV quiz show and the traditional "dishonest" portions of political utterances is that the former costs you little in money.

Torch Drive On
The annual campaign to raise the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin quota of the United Foundation Torch Drive is nearing its conclusion.

From Pennsylvania?
... asks Fred Waring of the three "Misses" who will appear in Stereo festival at Seaholm high school, at 8:30 tonight.

MSU Won't Have Ivy Growing on Its New Curriculum

Liberal Educations for All, Says Newest University's Boss

By JULIE CANDLER Staff Writer

ROCHESTER—The missing ivy is significant. Ivy has crept over many an old college in the same way that its unbreakable traditions and complicated rosters of special courses have slowly grown up.

When you weed out everything that doesn't lead to that primary goal, a lot of excess trimmings fall by the wayside. The result is a university that is different.

HE'S A firm believer in the guiding principle by which the first freshman class, which entered the university site to MSU President John Hannah, Varner was put in charge of the project, and later named MSU-O's president.

Varner to Speak To Library Friends

Chouls, goblins and teenagers—an estimated 6,000 of them—will descend on Birmingham Oct. 31.

Promote Bugas At Ford Motor

From Pennsylvania?
... asks Fred Waring of the three "Misses" who will appear in Stereo festival at Seaholm high school, at 8:30 tonight.

UF Drive Halfway to Goal Here

Let's Advertise, Price Recommends

B'ham Will Be 'Ghost Town' On That Night

Stroy Bullet Hits Teen-Ager

Beaumont: Condition Is Still Critical

A joy ride early Monday morning in a stolen Corvette took a sudden serious turn for 15-year-old James P. O'Leary, 2583 DePew, West Bloomfield township.

THEY TRIED to stop the car, the officers said, but at Woodward and Oak, it ran a red light and sped south on Hunter boulevard.

Vincent Price Endorses Holy Name Art Show

Nearly 2,000 persons agree with Vincent Price who said that week that everyone should "run, not walk" to the Holy Name contemporary religious art show.

B'ham Men Speak To Rocket Society

HE WAS spell-binding again when he finished reciting Whitman and telling Whistler anecdotes.

Promote Bugas At Ford Motor

Let's Advertise, Price Recommends

B'ham Will Be 'Ghost Town' On That Night

From Pennsylvania?
... asks Fred Waring of the three "Misses" who will appear in Stereo festival at Seaholm high school, at 8:30 tonight.

UF Drive Halfway to Goal Here

Let's Advertise, Price Recommends

B'ham Will Be 'Ghost Town' On That Night

From Pennsylvania?
... asks Fred Waring of the three "Misses" who will appear in Stereo festival at Seaholm high school, at 8:30 tonight.

