B of E Does Many Things—With Money

The Birmingham board of education played with money at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night.

The board spent $38,820.86, showed where it saved $5,000 and quibbled over a 650 expenditure.

Featherstone said for a Ford tractor and snow-plow blade was approved by the board. Board members were hesitant to approve a $50 appropriation to the terrazzo section of a sidewalk at the entrance to Hagan school. The terrazzo, it was reported, becomes dangerously slippery when wax tracked from inside the building, builds up on the sidewalk. The board wasn't convinced.

Ask Alley Paving
Paving of an alley from Hunter to Elm has been requested by two abutting property owners, Birmingham L. R. Gare for study.

irmingham branch of the Michigan Auto club and the Birmingham House Motel. The petition was referred to Birmingham city manager L. R. Gare for study.
