Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lay To Live in Port Huron

Community Congregation church was the scene October 3 for the marriage of Carolynn Mae Cogger and James Gilbert Lay. The Rev. John D. Rose performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 175 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Cogger of Sunset street, Lathrup village. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Lay of Port Huron.

CAROLYN appeared in a gown of chantilly lace and French tulle designed with a fitted bodice of lace, scooped neckline and bouffant skirt. An orange blossom crown secured her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried white baby mums and carnations centered with amaranth lilies and ivy.

BRIDESMAID was Dolores Montgomery and junior bridesmaids were Kathy McKay and Mary Lynn Beglinger. They were dressed alike in pale blue taffeta gowns with royal blue headbands.

MRS. LAY selected a garnet peau de soie sheath with pink rosebuds corsage and black accessories. The new Mrs. Lay donned a grey wool dress with turquoise accessories for her wedding trip to Niagara Falls. They will live in Port Huron.

"We could have shopped all night"

... like I was telling my wife, Judy, the night of Daly Brothers grand opening was sure one to remember. Right now she is pressing that beautiful long-stemmed rose she received, in her album. We came . . . we saw . . . we bought! Why don't you drop in soon-and discover that there is a difference in home furnishings at Daly Brothers? Yes, we could have shopped all night! Felt so much at home we almost did a cha'cha! cha! in the store!!
