

Couple Exchanges Vows In Lutheran Ceremony

Lutheran church of the Shepherd King was the scene Friday evening for the marriage of Jewel Leann Ofenstein and Charles Gillespie Gray. The Rev. A. Karl Boehmke performed the 8 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ofenstein of Putnam drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gray of Albertville, Ala.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown of white tulle designed with a chantly lace yoke forming a sabrina neckline, fitted bodice and a full skirt sweeping into a chantly lace paneled chapel train. A crown of pearls secured her French silk illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, orchids and lily of the valley.

HONOR attendant was Carol

Smith of Detroit. Bridesmaids were Mary Seavoy of Birmingham, Kathie Ofenstein of Lathrup and flower girl was Anna Gray of Albertville.

Attendants wore gold peau satin gowns featuring scooped necklines, empire waistlines and bell skirts. Headresses were matching satin and pearl crowns with short veils. They carried shades of yellow fuji mums.

GEORGE BLAINE Masters stood as best man and ushers were Joel J. Fischer, Claude E. Harris and Jay Thorpe.

Mother of the bride chose a blue chiffon gown with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Gray selected a royal blue lace dress with black accessories and white orchids.

Following a reception at the Birmingham Country club, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan.
