

Cranbrook Corridor

Point of View; Festival's Fun for One

"The Bat," a melodramatic mystery play, by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, will be revived by Cranbrook's dramatic club, "Ergasterion," on the evenings of Dec. 5 and 6.

"The Bat" was first produced in the 1920's and is based upon "The Circular Staircase," a novel written by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Rehearsals have started and individuals playing the ten parts have been made. Three dramatic Kingswoodites will play the female parts.

Kingswood held its annual Fall festival on Saturday evening, Oct. 17. The junior class presented a musical, "Harem Scarem," to start the evening.

Following the two performances came an exciting affair and a wonderful opportunity to spend money. Each Kingswood class provided a booth in the gymnasium at which were available games of chance, refreshments, streamers, and confetti.

A four piece band provided music for dancing. When Cranbrook boarders finally returned to their respective dormitories, they found a variety of streamers and confetti clinging to their clothes.

Although some of the more timid students haven't quite recovered, it was all good fun.

Made It to the U.S. —By About 300 Yards

One of the newest additions to the Southfield high school student roster this year is Austrian exchange student Heidi Fasching.

Heidi, her new-found associates report, is fitting well into American life, but she almost never made it, she said.

"If my parents had lived 300 yards more to the east, I wouldn't be here now. My home would be in Communist Hungary, and a hard trip like this would be impossible," she said.

Heidi, who arrived in America Aug. 7 with 150 other European students, is now a senior at Southfield and will remain in this country for a year under the foreign exchange student program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Foster parents for Heidi are Mr. and Mrs. George Clinky 22115 Fairway drive, who apparently aren't the only ones in the Southfield area to be impressed by the personable teenager.

SOUTHFIELD high students picked her as a finalist in the School's Homecoming Queen contest last week, and the Southfield Kiwanis club selected her as Pumpkin Queen for festivities this Saturday.

"In Austria the students stay in the same room while the teachers change classes. I had a hard time at first getting from one class to another in five minutes."

Taking a full load at Southfield High, Heidi has classes in English, French, American history, sociology, sewing and government. It's a bit different, concedes Heidi. "In Austria the students stay in the same room while the teachers change classes. I had a hard time at first getting from one class to another in five minutes."

Meanwhile, down in the gym the Festival was in progress. Each class was busy running its booth. The freshmen's fall seemed to be the most popular spot to pass the time—10 minutes for any offense a "friend" could dream up.

The brightly colored booths added to the gayety, as did the band which played an evening of the dedication of their time and energy to the play.

They were Mrs. Porter—for her able directing, Miss Gilliam—for planning the choreography, and Miss Lindemulder—for providing the music. When the curtains finally closed, each junior was presented with a corsage from the senior class.

The variety lost its hokey game to Sacred Heart 8-2, while the reserve tied 1-1. Joan Akers scored both Kingswood rivalry goals. Kingswood expects to have a stronger team to meet GPUS on Friday.

The first edition of the Clarion, Kingswood's school paper, came out this week. Sue Hayko, the editor, hopes that all those interested in the school and what is happening there will contact her for a subscription.

Another Angle: Though Fun, It Was Work

The 1959 Autumn festival proved to be a wonderful success. Both performances of Harem Scarem were well received by large audiences.

Scenes such as the grand procession of the sultan (Alice Bushong), who had a little trouble keeping the spotlight on his comic book, and songs such as "Oh What a Mess I've Made" sung by the sultan's sister (Doris Smith) provided humor and comedy throughout the play.

A dinner for the juniors preceded the festival at the home of Joan Pape. Also attending were Miss Goodale, Miss Fry, Mrs. Porter, and the junior class mothers, Mrs. William Norvell and Mrs. Minoru Yamaaki.

The United Foundation drive has begun at Derby. Each homeroom plans a money-raising project, such as a bake sale.

Derby's ninth grade football team went out for a mighty victory against Barnum last week 25-0. Derby's teams have really done well this year.

Derby's eighth-grade home room raised nearly $150.00, by raffling off an adorable puppy. The student council officers, Mike Buckingham and Hanley Bird conducted the service, while Boris Nicoloff gave the sermon.

The variety lost its hokey game to Sacred Heart 8-2, while the reserve tied 1-1. Joan Akers scored both Kingswood rivalry goals.

Dateline Derby 'Buzz, Buzz' —Football's Effect Here

By BRENDA DRUMM

Derby's really buzzing this week, all about football!

The Pep club is making plans for the Pep Rally tomorrow. The band will play some catchy marches, the cheerleaders will lead all the grades in some fighting cheers, and we hope Mr. Keller will introduce our star team.

ALL OF DERBY is excited about tomorrow night's all-star game with Groves at Seaholm.

The Pep club will sell cider and doughnuts, all the profits will go for pompons. Your activities tickets are good.

One of the biggest influences in pop and jazz circles has been Ray Charles. Although Charles hasn't had many hits in the pop market, his influence has stretched out in such performers as Bobby Darin, Al Hibbler, Joe Turner, LaVerne Baker.
