

BUSINESS BRIEFS

J. McCULLOUGH E. BARRINGTON RAY R. WELLS

Promoted at Burroughs

Three Birmingham men have been promoted at the Burroughs corporation's international division. It was announced this week. James A. McCullough, 1968 Stanley, has been named systems machines promotion manager. In this newly created position, he will be responsible for directing and coordinating product promotion, sales training and system development activities for all accounting, automatic data processing and scientific application equipment and 54 dealer organizations abroad. Ray R. Wells, 31760 Mayfair Lane, Beverly Hills, has been appointed assistant to the general sales manager. Wells will be responsible for the development of marketing programs with special emphasis on the continental European areas served by Burroughs companies.

Wright Named Sales Head

Harold B. Wright, formerly of Birmingham, has been appointed sales manager of Royalite plastics manufactured by United Rubber Co., with headquarters at the Chicago, Ill. plant. The appointment was announced by Charles H. Baldwin, general sales manager of manufacturers' products for the company's footwear and general products division.

RICHARD S. LURIE

Dick Lurie To Open New Dealership

Richard S. Lurie, son of Nathan W. Lurie, vice chairman of the board of ACE Wrigleys and co-founder of the supermarket chain, recently resigned his post as real estate specialist to assume ownership of Bud Triba Ford, 12 Mile at Coolidge. In making the announcement, Lurie said the new name of the business will be Dick Lurie Ford Sales, Inc.

LURIE PLANS to move into a new building at 10 Mile and Greenfield by the end of the year. The new facilities will contain approximately 20,000 sq. feet and have all the most modern innovations for servicing automobiles. Lurie is married and has three sons. He is a Navy veteran and has been with Wrigley's for the past nine years. He is currently completing plans for a new home in the Birmingham area on Forest lane.

New Controller

Appointment of Richard D. Ringe, 1650 Lone Pine, Bloomfield township, to the position of controller for the division has been announced by Mr. A. O'B. Andrews, president of American Standard Industrial division. Ringe obtained his masters degree in business administration from Harvard business school and is a certified public accountant. He joined American Standard in 1952 with the Detroit Controls division.

B'ham Stores Get New Game

Three Birmingham stores have been named distributors of a new game that is based on the stock market. Called "Blue Chip," the game actually works on the basic principles of the stock market and many brokers recommend it to acquaint the novice with stock market operations. Handling the product are Bleasby & Co., 294 W. Maple; Jacobson & Co., 275 N. Woodward; and Sportsman, 116 S. Woodward.

Weisman Attends Career School

S. Miller Weisman, 5347 Cambridge Place, W. Bloomfield, attended a two-week career school at the home office of the Northwestern Mutual life insurance company recently. He studied the advanced areas of life insurance underwriting. The school was held in Milwaukee, Wis.

Bliven Named Registration Head

LaVern J. Nelson, A.L.A. Detroit architect, has been named chairman of the 46th annual convention of the Michigan Society of Architects. It was announced this week by Frederick E. Wigen, A.L.A., Saginaw, president of the association. A. Robert Bliven, 1284 Ruffner, Birmingham will be in charge of registration.
