

Plan Area Convention

Members of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses are preparing to attend a three day area convention Oct. 30—Nov. 1, at Oxford. More than 1500 delegates are expected to attend from 21 congregations in eastern Michigan including Pontiac, Port Huron, Bad Axe and Royal Oak.

In making the announcement Kenneth Pulifer, local presiding minister, said the assembly will help those attending to understand the meaning of today's tense world situation as foretold in Bible prophecy.

The theme of the program, "Do the Divine Will," emphasizes the efforts of Jehovah's witnesses.

THE PRINCIPAL speaker of the assembly will be Peter P. Mura, representative from the world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Brooklyn, New York. His main address Nov. 1 will answer the question "When is God's Will to be Done on Earth?"

Among those featured on the Oct. 30 ministry school program will be Mrs. Ken Pulifer and Mrs. Eugene Miller of the local congregation who will appear in a demonstration of how Bible studies are conducted in the home.
