

If man can, upon the wings of an airplane, reach heights far above the clouds, can not he, on wings of faith, reach earthly heights far above the seral human environments of care-ness, greed, intolerance, hate, fear . . . and the awful tragedy of war. Faith, it seems to me, is an available force that, like the invisible electrical energy, is the Celestial Power to raise mankind to its divinity!

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, October 29, 1959

SECTION C

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

'Le Bal Moderne'

Mrs. Dean Coffin's Bloomfield Hills home was the scene last week when many interested guests attended a luncheon to discuss early reports of Le Bal Moderne, set for December 5 at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

No Place Like Home?

Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Smith are returning to Birmingham this week after an absence of six months. After a two-months European trip last spring, they returned to their summer home on Grand Traverse Bay near Eastport, where they spent the last four months. They plan to leave again after the first of the year for California and will sail from Los Angeles on January 28 for two months in Hawaii.

Former B'hamite Here

Marie Murphy, formerly of Lenox drive, Birmingham, now of Albion, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Pulifer of Berkeley. She will be around for about a month.

Around World Party

An unusual "Around-the-World" supper party was given for their neighbors by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Englewood Franklin road, following a meeting of the Woodcrest Farms suburban last Thursday evening.

Hans Bretzner, a professional lecturer in and around Chicago, who is a personal friend of the Engels, brought and showed his film, "Around the World."

The first reel ended in the Orient; so the guests were served Indian curried rice, topped with chopped nuts and chutney.

Invitations which had gone out previously pictured a white spherical world on shiny black paper.

Mrs. Engel's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Imboden, also attended the party, as did the Engels' sons, Paul and Lloyd.

Entertains At GYPC

Mrs. Stanley L. Willis of Stratford drive, Bloomfield Hills, entertained at a luncheon and bridge party at Grosse Pointe yacht club last Thursday. Her guests including Mrs. Girvan Teal of Windsor; Mrs. John Damsper, of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Donald Hirschman, of Orchard Lakes; Mrs. W. S. Wilson and Mrs. F. R. Pierce, of Birmingham; and Messrs. Ray Forsythe and Kenneth Culpin, of Bloomfield Hills.

Attending Ballet

Birmingham area residents entertaining guests for the Severo Ballet performances are Mrs. John G. Wood, who have among her guests, Mrs. Donald F. Kehl of Ann Arbor and Maud Kline from Sweden. Miss Kline arrived a few days ago to be with her sister Svea Kline. The Carl Barton, the W. A. Williams, the D. P. Elises will be among those attending the performances, and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Voss will entertain a group of friends.

Mezzo Soprano Receives Achievement Citation

Alice Engram of Kirkshire drive, Birmingham, was honored Friday at the annual achievement day convocation in the college Baptist church at Hillsdale college.

President J. Donald Phillips presented Miss Engram with an achievement citation for her national success in the field of music since her graduation from Hillsdale. While at Hillsdale she received the women's commissioners' voice scholarship for three years and became a member of Sigma Alpha Iota.

AFTER GRADUATION, Miss Engram, a mezzo soprano, went to New York where she did graduate work at the Juilliard School of Music and gave a recital in Carnegie Hall which drew high praise from the critics.

ALICE ENGRAM, mezzo soprano, was honored Friday at the annual achievement day convocation in the college Baptist church at Hillsdale college.

Glass Slippers Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Kraus of North Glenngary road, Bloomfield Village, rolled out the red carpet Saturday evening, when a few friends dropped in for a cocktail party preceding the Cinderella Ball at the Statler-Hilton.

Mrs. Kraus looked very lovely in a full length shocking pink gown designed with a hand-beaded halter style bodice and diamond earrings.

THE CINDERELLA Ball is the annual fund raising event for the women's committee of the TB and Health society. Cinderella is chosen from a number of young girls who have recovered from tuberculosis, and this year's dark haired beauty is Adrienne Konezal. Her prince charming was Michael Mann.

The party began at 7 with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres tables which featured crepe Suzette an crabmeat, quiches a la Lorraine and nigmettes Strassbourgeoise.

THE DINNER menu featured cold soup, beef tenderloin and baked Alaskan.

Among those attending from the Birmingham-Bloom-

A happy six-some leaving for the Cinderella Ball are (from left) W. K. Kraus of North Glenngary road, Roy Campion, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Demarest, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schaefer, Mrs. Campion and Mrs. Demarest.

field area were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Demarest, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campion, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fruehauf, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Packer, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Chap- the music of Warner Ruhl's in Mrs. John Broderick and orchestra. The ballroom was decorated with clusters of balloons descending from the ceiling.

THE GAY crowd danced to chandeliers.

Floor Show At DAC

Detroit Athletic club's upcoming dinner-floor show scheduled for Nov. 6-14 with the exception of Sunday and Monday, (Nov. 8th) will offer a gala entertainment pace when Earl Wrightson, baritone, and Louis Hunt, contralto, appear each evening with delightfully tuneful songs from popular musical shows.

A number of Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the club already have reservations for one or another of the seven nights.

THE DAC's entertainment committee, planning an exciting week, has requested black tie dress particularly for the opening Birmingham members of the committee are Thomas J. Bolton, Phil F. deBeauvoir and Clyde P. Crane, Jr.

Dinner dancing and late dancing after the show will be to music by Emery Deutsch and his orchestra. The team of brilliant singers will be on stage at 10:30 o'clock.

Republican Women of OC Honor Senator

The Republican women of Oakland county celebrated their successful fund drive with a tea last week at Devon Gables. Over $15,000 was raised by the women during their county finance campaign the past few weeks.

About 300 guests were present to hear Merritt Hill introduce Sen. Morton, chairman of the national Republican committee.

MRS. HOWARD Liverance of Birmingham was chairman of the tea, assisted by Mrs. William McKenzie of Bloomfield township.

Area chairmen from the Birmingham area were Mrs. Richard Van Dusen, Mrs. Philip Dewit, Mrs. William Hilligan, Mrs. E. Govan Hill, Mrs. Jean Green, Mrs. A. H. Vogel and Mrs. Frances Mortley.

SPECIAL GUESTS at the tea included John B. Martin, national committee man, and Mrs. Martin; Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., member of the national Republican finance committee; Lawrence B. Lindemer.

At the speakers' table were Birmingham residents State GOP Finance Chairman Dan Ahrens, Mrs. C. M. Drake, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mrs. William Hagar, Mrs. Frederick Sanders, Mrs. W. W. Henderson, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. Ralph Zimmerman and Mrs. Albert G. Nantarrow.

Christ Child Society's Annual November Fair

Mrs. John Allston who with her co-chairman, Mrs. Joe Jutt are completing their work on the family corner booth of the Birmingham Christ Child Society which will present their annual fair at the Latin Quarter Nov. 6 from 1 until 5 p.m.

Proceeds will be used in maintaining the Christ Child Home, a temporary shelter for children of all races and creeds.

Supervising the Birmingham fair are Mrs. James Barbour and among her workers are Mrs. J. Paul Bergmann, Mrs. Arch Stearns, Mrs. Frank Audette, Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Leo Linsenymer and Mrs. Richard Giering.

Kay is a graduate of Rollins college, Gainesville, Fla., where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Scranton.

A date for her January wedding is planned.

Dr. Esther Smith Heads School of Medical Technology

The medical technology program of the College of Veterinary Medicine was designated as the school of medical technology by the board of trustees.

Dr. Esther Smith, daughter of the R. M. Smiths of N. Lincoln drive, Birmingham, assistant professor of anatomy, continues in this capacity as the title of director of the school.

Dr. Smith received the BS, MS and PhD degrees at MSU in 1946, 1951 and 1955. She was appointed an assistant professor in the anatomy department in 1955.

THE AUTHOR of several science publications, Dr. Smith is known for her work in cell studies, tissue culture and other research activities.

She is presently engaged in a cancer research project with the aid of a $5,000 grant from the Michigan county cancer society.

Looking at some of the articles to be featured at the Import Fair Wednesday are (from left) Mrs. Norman J. Fleming of Wattle road, Troy, Bob Ritter, and Mrs. John VonEberstein of Royal Oak.

Delta Zeta Chimes Dedicated Sunday

The Delta Zeta chimes for the new Inter-Faith chapel at Miami university were officially dedicated at Oxford, Ohio, Sunday in the chapel. A tea followed the ceremony.

These chimes were a gift from many individual Delta Zetas over the country, college and alumnae chapters and from the national offices of Delta Zeta and Delta Sigma Epsilon which merged three years ago. Delta Zeta was founded at Miami University in 1902 and Delta Sigma Epsilon in 1914.

MRS. RUSSELL T. Costello of Pine Lake road, immediate past national president of Delta Zeta, presented the chimes in behalf of the group.

She was elected president of the Detroit alumnae chapter in 1939. In 1942 she was elected to the national council of Delta Zeta as secretary and in 1959 became national extension vice president.

Mrs. Costello is now the national public relations conference delegate from DZ, and will represent them at the national nomenclature conference Nov. 9 at Boca Raton, Fla.

SHE IS A graduate of Lombard college, Galesburg, Ill., where she was a graduate scholarship to the University of Illinois. Following a career as a children's case worker, Mrs. Costello became a psychiatric social worker in the criminal court

LOCAL HISTORY will come alive for the DZ alumnae group II when they meet Tuesday evening at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Albert T. Olson, Jr., 6735 Whyalla.

Native folklore and fact will be learned from Bert Wood, as he recalls the vivid memories of the past about the surrounding area, where he has lived for the past 25 years. He is the author of "Franklin's Yesteryear."

DZ ALUMNAE group I will have a noon luncheon and shower Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Russell M. Richardson, 1357 Chesterfield, Mrs. Forbes Hascall will be the co-hostess.

Guest of honor will be Penny Sears, 17928 Buckingham, a former DZ alumna, who will be married in December.

Membership Tea Set

The Nov. 6 membership tea of the University of Minnesota women's club will be at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Carl Christensen, 2580 Kentmore, Birmingham.

There will be a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Costley. Hostesses will be Mrs. Nicholas Kenjosi and Mrs. Carl Nepper.

Delta Delta Delta Alumnae' Luncheon

Delta Delta Delta alumnae members in Birmingham will meet for lunch at 12:30 Monday at the home of Mrs. Robert Assisting will be Mrs. E. Sedgewick Stag of Royal Oak.

Plans will be made at the meeting for the celebration of Founders Day on Nov. 18, when the local group will join with the Detroit alumnae for dinner at the Whittier. Plans will also be completed at this time for the rummage sale on Nov. 21.

Import Fair Planned

Showcase, Inc., 136 Brownell street, Birmingham, will be the scene Wednesday of an Import Fair, featuring lovely handmade items and unusual toys and gifts from 14 countries.

Members from the South Oakland Kappa Delta alumnae are bringing together importers from Birmingham and the greater Detroit area to present their wares in time for Christmas selection. The event is open to the public.

BABY-SITTER service will be provided and free coffee and cookies will be served from noon until 9 p.m. Proceeds from the sale will go to further the sorority's interest in the Oakland county crippled children's school in Pontiac and other crippled children's agencies.