Market Scheduled

More than 900 women volunteers representing 88 nationalities are completing arrangements for Detroit's 29th annual Old World Market to be at International Institute for four days, Nov. 19-22.

In charge of the international gifts booth is Mrs. Herbert J. Woodall, who is assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Harold C. McPike of Woodale and Mrs. William Fluher, both of Birmingham, and another daughter, Mrs. Walter Willey of Monroe.

BIRMINGHAM AREA women working on the treasure shop committee are Mrs. Donald Tyler of Franklin Hill drive, Mrs. Harold Bagley of Burring Bush, Karen Vander Kloot of Lone Pine drive and Mrs. Paul P. Penfield of Lakeside drive. Lee A. White is on the publicity committee.

The market's rare treasure shop, international booths, pantry and candy shop, old book shop and new Christmas card booth are now being gaily decorated to give them a streets-of-the-old-world atmosphere.

B'ham Woman's Club Plan Luncheon

The Birmingham woman's club will hold a dessert luncheon at 1 p.m. Nov. 3 at the YMCA on Lincoln avenue. Mrs. E. J. Kemp, program chairman, will introduce the speaker, Helen Calbeck, world traveler, teacher and lecturer in the world Federalist movement.

Her topic will be "Science, Japan and World Unity." Representing the American Home department, the hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. Lawrence Heintz, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Thomas Hurms and Mrs. Carlton D. Cole.

THE MODERN living department of the Birmingham woman's club will hold its next meeting on Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. at the Grinnell Brothers studio. Mrs. Doherty will present a program of music on the chord organ.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Richard Thomas, Mrs. John L. Elliott and Mrs. Arthur King.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 3575 Burning Bush road? Mrs. and Mrs. Burton Durkee moved from Portland, Ore., on Sept. 20. He is vice president of J. Walter Thompson company. They are members of the Detroit boat club and Detroit adraft club. The Durkees have three daughters, Nancy, Susan and Kathryn.

SOCIETY

Providence Junior Guild's busy bees met last week to discuss plans for their winter event, a concert to be given by the Detroit symphony orchestra. Checking the program are (from left) Mrs. J. E. Bolton of Pilgrim street, and Mrs. Robert G. Mahler of Kinross. On the telephone taking reservations is Mrs. James Pingel of Norfolk drive.

Providence Junior Guild Sponsors Winter Concert

A concert kick-off luncheon was held Oct. 14 at the Detroit golf club. The hostesses, Mrs. Charles A. Porretta and Mrs. John M. Tracey are ticket co-chairmen for a concert to be given by the Detroit symphony orchestra, conducted by Valter Poole on Feb. 21 at 3:30 p.m.

Tenor vocalist Frank Porretta will fly from New York where he is associated with the New York City opera company to complete the program. The Junior guild of Providence hospital will sponsor the event. Special recovery room beds for Providence will be purchased from the proceeds.

CO-CHAIRMEN of the benefit are Mrs. Albert J. Albrecht and Mrs. Richard G. Pearce. Ticket committee consists of Mrs. Edward Braniff, Mrs. Arthur Hagan, Mrs. Forrest Hainline, Mrs. Donald Klump, Mrs. Charles Lautenschelle, Mrs. Bruce Lemon, Mrs. Joseph Watt, Mrs. James Pingel and Mrs. Sam Tesoro.
