

Barnum Bylines

'Seen Red?'

You Will— Here, Soon

By THE PRESS CLUB

Barnum's eighth grade dramatic production under the direction of Miss Lyla McCormick will be Thursday, Nov. 5.

The title of this year's play is "Have You Seen Red?" The characters are same, but the cast is all new.

The student directors are Sue Hicks and Claudia Kicker. Tickets on sale soon, will be fifty cents each.

Mrs. Richard Moran is the sponsor of the United Foundation drive at Barnum this year. Each home-room is sponsoring its own money-raising project. Under the direction of Mr. Moran bake sales, record rooms, cake walks, and slave auctions are taking place to meet the school's $760.00 goal.

Barnum Junior High's 10th grade all star team is coached by Mr. Fred Gibson.

The team with an average of 114 pounds on the line and a fast and hard-running backfield is a well-rounded combination. Aided by Coach Gibson, Barnum should come out on top.

At right guard, John McGuire, at right tackle Bob Bruesche, and at right end Don Outman. This is to be the toughest of the all-star games for Barnum.

Kingswood Column

They Went, They Saw, They Copy

By JOAN McDONALD

With the fun of the Festival over Kingswood can become more seriously dramatic-minded. During the past two weekends great numbers of students have attended the Vista starring Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne. Productions of our own have also been undertaken.

Three girls have been chosen to perform with the Cranbrook dramatic club, "Erasterson," in "The Bat," Dec. 5 and 6. Carol Klenke will have the romantic lead, Abby Kingwood and Cariboo on Sunday afternoon. The Hoys annually invite each class to attend similar events throughout the year.

GREATLY INCREASED enjoyment came to Kingswood recently with the reopening of the soda fountain. The fountain is under the direction of the Dormitory council, and is open on Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. during the week and Sunday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on the weekend. Parents and friends are invited to join the girls and partake of the pleasures offered there.

The last officially scheduled varsity hockey game will be Friday at 4 p.m. Grosse Pointe Sacred Heart, Kingswood's greatest rival for many years, will meet the varsity on Kingswood field.

The hockey game with OPEHS, which was scheduled last Friday was rained out. It has been postponed to a later date.

The "B" section juniors and seniors played a game with the Redford high varsity last Thursday. Despite enthusiastic encouragement from their supporters, Kingswood was defeated 5-0.

During the past few weeks Kingswood has been visited by other juniors in schools affiliated with the American Field Service, have been making applications for a summer abroad.

Three girls, Betsy Harbour, Pat Gauntlett, and Joan McDonald, were chosen by the A.F.S. committee at Kingswood to make final applications to New York.

Through the A.F.S. plan we are able to have with us this year, Kathryn Fear from New Zealand, also Sara Bartholomew, chosen as A.F.S. student from Kingswood, spent two months in France.

New Discussion Due On Old, Old Subject

By CAROL JURICA

Certain girls are being chosen from speech class to be Marian's debate teams. They will start training immediately on this year's national high school debate topic, labor unions. The girls are being selected and trained by Sr. Mary Aquinas, speech and history teacher.

The student library was finally opened last week. Volunteer girls are acting as librarians for Sr. Maureen, manager of the new library. We feel that this team is a truly great one although we don't like to admit it. The final score was 32-0.

Our team tried its best but after a while it became hopeless. LaMothe, halfback, and Bill Brown did a fine job in trying to stop the onslaught. LaSalle has now added Holy Name to its string of victories.

Holy Name
Memories—tho Unpleasant—are Made of This

By JUDY GOODE

Last Sunday LaSalle left us with a vivid picture of their power. We feel that this team is a truly great one although we don't like to admit it. The final score was 32-0.

Our team tried its best but after a while it became hopeless. LaMothe, halfback, and Bill Brown did a fine job in trying to stop the onslaught. LaSalle has now added Holy Name to its string of victories.

THE TURNOUT for this game was much better than the previous game. We encourage students and parents to attend our last two games which are coming up soon. This week we will play Sacred Heart of Roseville. This game will be played at Roseville's Memorial field. We are hoping to up our victories which stand at two and to sustain our losses which stand at three.

John O'Hara, an eighth grade student, won a volume of "Great Historical Places." John won this through a list of "The Seven Places I Would Like Mr. K to See."

Out of thousands of entries in this contest sponsored by "The Young Citizen" his was picked as one of the twenty best. As a result he was awarded this interesting volume. The whole school in the spirit, Rosaeen Taunt, student.
