

Walnut Lake Estates Names Board Officials

WALNUT LAKE—Election of three new board members highlighted the Oct. 4 meeting of Walnut Lake Estates (sub. 2.)

Chosen to serve a three year term under the new rotation system were Walter Conners, Melvin McCrackin and George Machek.

A resolution was passed to keep the gates at the beach entrance locked. Members may receive keys by applying to Melvin McCrackin, 687 Davis Street, Birmingham.

The first full meeting of the executive board was held Oct. 19 at the home of Ray Embach to appoint officers for the coming year. John Walker was appointed presi-

Les Frasers Celebrate At Silver Anniversary

HIGHLAND, Mich.—Much of the traffic moving along M-59 last Sunday between 2 and 6 p.m. was the result of a surprise silver wedding anniversary held for Mr. and Mrs. Les Frasier, former Franklinites. Now living in Highland, the Frasers were feted by their six children. Joining them were legions of friends made during their many active years of business and residency in Franklin.

FRANKLIN—It's all kinds spooky, but friends of Master Dick Kelly, Redfern road, will be appearing for Halloween party fun at 8 p.m. Saturday, armed with ghost stories to tell.

Maybe, this time . . . Franklin will have a foreign exchange student representative in Carolyn Ledford of Garden Way. A junior at Sasholm high, Carolyn has been selected as one of six finalists for an assignment to live with a foreign family next summer.

Heading west this Sunday for a whole new life in San Francisco is Sally Roseberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry of Wellington road. Sally will be accompanied by her mother as she drives west to meet former Franklinites Beverly Bell, daughter of the D. C. Bells of Brandingham. Mrs. Roseberry expects to return by plane after a brief visit and sight-seeing trip.

The seven who supped with the Robert Kerrs last Saturday night were given an intellectual workout to find the clues hidden in original poems. Daughter Cecily entertains this Friday night for a pre-Halloween dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Nymberg of N. Cromwell were hosts for the neighborhood pot luck supper group which meets each month and features the national dishes of one country. Saturday night each couple brought a course of Polish food.

First Official Camp Fire Group Starts in Franklin

FRANKLIN—Twelve ten-year-old girls became Franklin's first official camp fire girl unit Tuesday afternoon.

At formal welcome ceremonies held after school at the Franklin Community church, each girl had her kerchief tied in the traditional knot and pledged loyalty to the ideals of the organization and their unit which will be named Hi-Ko-Ki.

Mothers were guests as Mrs. Paizer and two other representatives from Huntington Woods spoke on the requirements of attaining the first rank.

A 41-year-old camp fire girl uniform was exhibited through the courtesy of Mrs. G. Paige of Bloomfield township.

Mrs. John Menath and Mrs. Robert McGowan will be the adult leaders of the new unit.

Community Library Benefit Bridge Scheduled Nov. 6

FRANKLIN—It's in the cards that Franklin's community library will benefit from the Nov. 6 bridge party at the Franklin Community church.

With local merchants and businessmen once again donating prizes under the gentle persuasion of Mrs. Edwin Paige and Mrs. Norman Curran, Mrs. Harry Lang, Jr. is arranging other details as general chairman.

Tickets for $1.25 per person or $5 per table may be bought from village stores or through ticket chairman Walter Rodgers.

Proceeds will go into the library's general operating fund supplementing the annual membership subscription.

mittee and Halloween committee; Mrs. Elliot Oakwood, membership and welfare; Walter Conners, by-laws and Julian Ofenstein, chairman of the board of trustees committee and chairman of the joint lake safety council.

A new committee has been formed this year to be known as the building committee and Walter Conners and Marvin Mallis will head this project.

Mrs. C. G. Maynard, of Royal Oak, will speak on "Mrs. and Day-lilies" to members of the Walnut Lake WNFPA at the Nov. 2 meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Dunham, 6455 Westmoor road.

Mrs. M. B. Norland will present a floral arrangement for judging. Serving on the tea committee will be Mrs. Stewart Schultz, Mrs. Kenneth Diebly and Mrs. Henry Hall.

The first in a series of classes in flower arranging for club members was held today in the home of Mrs. Henry Sakin, 2670 Comfort drive.

The class, which will meet weekly, with the final session scheduled for Dec. 3, will be taught by Mrs. Isabelle Zaker.

A dance program incorporating both ballet and Spanish numbers will highlight the Nov. 3 meeting of the Walnut Lake Women's club at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the West Bloomfield township hall.

Linda Taggart and Dennis Lambert, members of the Detroit City ballet will perform.

Special guests at this meeting will be members of the Walnut Lake Girl's club, who are under the sponsorship of the Women's club.

On November 10 the first in a series of monthly social parties will be launched at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, 5454 Putnam drive.

Under the aegis of the "Bell Ringers," the parties will be held at the Ofenstein residence where guests may enjoy a card game, sewing, knitting etc., following light refreshments. Women in the Walnut Lake area interested in attending these parties should make reservations with Mrs. Ofenstein or Mrs. E. L. McCane, club president.

On Nov. 19, the club will put on a conference for senior scouts Nov. 6-7 at the Royal Oak First Baptist church, 809 Main Street, Royal Oak and Nov. 8 at the Ferradale Oddfellows Hall, 22856 Woodward, Ferndale.

Leaders and girls from seventh and eighth grade intermediate troops as well as senior scouts are welcome as spectators at the Nov. 8 morning program from 9:30 to 11:30 when a mock United Nations session will be held with foreign exchange students participating.

Walnut Lake boy scout troop 41 held an over night campout at Camp Agawan last weekend with 20 boys and six adults attending.

Attending a training program for patrol leaders and their assistants conducted at the camp were Don Hastings and Tod Cavette of Eagle patrol; Bob Freund and Doug Jardine of the Sioux pa-

McClanahan's troop-973 having 27 members.

The southern Oakland senior planning board will present "Hands around the World," at a conference for seniors Nov. 6-7 at the Royal Oak First Baptist church, 809 Main Street, Royal Oak and Nov. 8 at the Ferradale Oddfellows Hall, 22856 Woodward, Ferndale.
