

Heap O' Doings Underway

... at new Groves Hill. See picture page on 1-B.

Come, Come, Come, Come

... come to the church at 14 Mile and Melton. Our Shepherd Lutheran will celebrate its tenth year Sunday. See page 6-B.

Bookworms Dive Under Covers

... at Derby's annual book fair. See page 1-C.

Bull Run, Here They Come

... yes, two Civil War enthusiasts from Beverly Hills. For a unique view of peace-time Union-Confederate activities see page 1-E.

Detroit Pistons

... to help Babe Ruth League. See page 8-E.

Down At the BAC

It's a deep hole, but then it's a good-sized project—$142,000 clubhouse of the Birmingham Athletic club. Slipping up the going-out (top, from left) Robert Giles, Club Manager, and Robert Burton; (bottom, from left) Fred Freeman, chairman of the legal committee, and Peter Finn. Burton and Finn are co-chairmen of the building committee; they and Freeman are members of the board of directors. Designed by Odell, Hewlett and Lockenbach, Birmingham architects, "the building will complete club facilities as planned by members," a club spokesman said. It will include a kitchen, lounge and grill, two lounge areas, bar, and lockers. It is due for completion in March or April.

INSIDE THE ECCENTRIC

Amusements	2-A
Bits of Birmingham	4-D
Business Briefs	4-B
Campus News	4-D
Church	6-B
Down to Earth	8-D
Editorials	8-B
Nature Now	3-B
Obituaries	3-A
Round the Towns	E, D
Sports	8-E
Woman's News	C, D
Want Ads	6, 7, 8-A
Youth	5-C

This and That

by George R. Averill

22 Students At Seaholm Make 'Top 10'

Six hundred Oakland county Republican women this week are busy visiting their neighbors. They are seeking contributions to build a strong 1960 election fund.

More Free Coffee To B'ham Shoppers

Last night's successful "free coffee for shoppers" on Friday night will be started again tomorrow evening by the retail merchants committee of the Birmingham chamber of commerce.

12 Town Drain To Be Halted By Court Suit

Court action will stop the Twelve Town drain project. It was certain this week after Madison Heights directed its attorney, Eugene H. Field, to sue over that city's share of the $47 million project.

Rec Board Will Meet Tonight

The Birmingham recreation board will handle routine business this evening at the regular meeting, to be held at 8 p. m. in the Municipal building.

Rek Board Will Meet Tonight

The Birmingham recreation board will handle routine business this evening at the regular meeting, to be held at 8 p. m. in the Municipal building.

Truck in House Driveway Get City Attention

Birmingham's residential area has no places in which to park cars, and the city is looking for a way to solve the problem.

1700 Workers All Set for 11th Drive

Next Tuesday the many thousands of residents of the Birmingham area will embark on their 11th campaign toward meeting their Torch Drive quota, which this year is $208,907.

50 Years After the Oath

John S. Lambie, M.D. (right) of Birmingham, receives congratulations for 50 years of service at the Michigan State Medical society meeting at Grand Rapids from Milton A. Darling, M. D., Detroit, president of the state society.

Start Tuesday After $202,907 UF Quota

Next Tuesday the many thousands of residents of the Birmingham area will embark on their 11th campaign toward meeting their Torch Drive quota, which this year is $208,907.

Seventeen hundred BRF region volunteer workers that day will begin canvassing homes and businesses in a 10-day drive which in the Detroit metropolitan area is attempting to raise $17,660,000 to support 15 United Fund agencies for a year.

1700 Workers All Set for 11th Drive

Next Tuesday the many thousands of residents of the Birmingham area will embark on their 11th campaign toward meeting their Torch Drive quota, which this year is $208,907.

50 Years After the Oath

John S. Lambie, M.D. (right) of Birmingham, receives congratulations for 50 years of service at the Michigan State Medical society meeting at Grand Rapids from Milton A. Darling, M. D., Detroit, president of the state society.

Group Hopes to Take Plunge Into Its Own Swimming Pool

Tired of living in a community without an all-hours available swimming pool, a group of Birmingham residents is taking matters into their own hands.

Businessmen Beef Over Way Traffic Is Being Steered

That revamped Hunter-Woodward-Lincoln intersection has businessmen at the southwest corner in a stew.

Outline Benefits To Region from UF Organizations

As the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin region prepares to undertake its 1959 Torch Drive "give-one-for-all" drive, Region Chairman Mrs. Clyde C. Bennett, Jr., released figures on services provided residents by Torch Drive-sponsored agencies.

MJ&A's Move to Hills Retold in 'Suburbia'

Bloomfield Hills' biggest business—MacManus, John & Adams advertising agency—takes the lead article in October's Suburbia Today.

Girl Pleads Guilty To Robbery Charge

Mrs. Sharon H. Wells, 18, who robbed a cab driver of $55.85 at knife-point Sept. 6, was sentenced to two to five years in the Detroit House of Correction in Oakland county circuit court Monday.

Truck in House Driveway Get City Attention

Birmingham's residential area has no places in which to park cars, and the city is looking for a way to solve the problem.

1700 Workers All Set for 11th Drive

Next Tuesday the many thousands of residents of the Birmingham area will embark on their 11th campaign toward meeting their Torch Drive quota, which this year is $208,907.