

MRIA to Meet In Birmingham

Legislative activity and political responsibilities will be the theme of the program when the Michigan Retail Hardware association area member merchants, guests and friends meet in Birmingham, Thursday, October 8.

According to Fred Callwell, Lake Orion Hardware & Sporting Goods, Lake Orion, chairman of the activities, the purpose of the gathering is to outline the individual's responsibilities as a citizen and to encourage more participation in political activity.

GUESTS AT the meeting will be the legislators representing this district in Lansing. Those attending will be given the opportunity of meeting the lawmakers whose activities in Lansing during the past year have attracted unprecedented interest.

Also participating on the program will be Arthur A. Merchant, F. W. Merchant's Sons, Union City, and Charles P. Godderyne, Lansing, present and legislative agent respectively of the association.

The Birmingham meet is one in a series of 22 fall district meetings of the Michigan Retail Hardware Association which began September 8 and will conclude October 22, according to Harold W. Schumacher, association manager-treasurer.

DAVID J. JASSY
CAC Places Stock for Public Sale

Commercial Acceptance Corporation, until recently a family-owned concern, has tripled its capitalization through the public sale of stock, according to president David J. Jassy, 2551 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

Established in 1934 by Jassy's father, the late Henry Jassy, the corporation is engaged in all forms of commercial financing. It also serves as an operating branch of the A. J. Armstrong Corporation, of New York.

JASSY, WHO STARTED with the company in 1940 and has been its president since 1946, stated that the business was growing with the needs of the Detroit area for commercial financing and the increased capitalization would enable Commercial to keep pace with the requirements of its clients.

Jassy is also a member of the board of directors of the National Commercial Finance Conference.

Representing some of the recent investors in the company are the following new officers and directors, who assumed their positions on September 1: Max K. Newman, M. D., of Detroit, vice-president and director; Sam Newman, also of Detroit, secretary-treasurer and a director, who also serves as an officer and director of Northwest Realty Company and the Electro-zad Supply Company; Harry Kalb, CPA, of Newark, New Jersey, director; and David Hersch, of Detroit, director, who is also general counsel of the Maccabees.

Presenting the Magnificent Nineteen-Sixty

Cadillac

THE FLEETWOOD SIXTY SPECIAL

Creating a New Era of Elegance!

The motor cars represented here will soon introduce a new era of elegance to the world's highways.

They are the Cadillac cars of 1960—and, from every standpoint, they represent the Cadillac tradition in its finest hour.

In appearance, they are regal and majestic as never before—a brilliant symphony of line and contour from the sparkling new front grille to the graceful rear fenders.

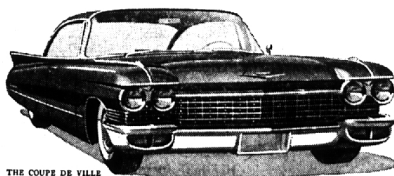

In interior decor, they are truly magnificent—featuring luxurious new fabrics and leathers—new convenience of appointments—and new excellence in every detail.

And in the way they drive and handle, they are perfection on wheels. There is a greatly refined engine and transmission that provide even finer performance . . . a ride of unbelievable smoothness and quiet . . . and advancements in power steering and braking that make motoring the simplest and most delightful of pleasures.

These new Cadillac virtues have been interpreted in thirteen distinctive body styles. Every motorist owes himself an hour at the wheel of one of these creations.

The 1960 Cadillac is waiting for you now at your authorized Cadillac dealer's—and your dealer himself is waiting to introduce you to this magnificent new Standard of the World!
