Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

from Nancy Porter

MI 4-2880

Among the 103,000 (Plus) spectators at the Michigan-Michigan State game in Ann Arbor last Saturday, Birmingham area people were, as usual, well represented.

The Donald S. Huttons of Hawthorne road, and the Richard S. Teels of Kimberly road, attended the game together. Upon returning to Birmingham the Teels went on to a post-game party at the Walnut road home of Dr. and Mrs. S. Daniel Steiner, who moved here last June from East Lansing, Mich. A friendly rivalry existed at the Steiners' party, which included many of their friends from East Lansing as well as some U. of M. rosters. Among the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills people at the party were the Sheldon Moyers, the George A. Jacobys, the H. S. McFarlands, the Franklin Butlers, the E. M. Esteses, and the John S. Coppins.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shardelow of Rivenock, along with the Ray E. Lawlors, went to the game together on the Bloomfield Hills Country Club bus.

On the same bus were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Girard, of Bloomfield Hills, accompanied by their daughter, Shelagh, and her Michigan State university school friend, Judy Runquist. Both girls came from E. Lansing to spend the week end forth, their paths crossed several times in Europe. In London for a week, they saw many plays; they especially enjoyed the "Old Vic" players.

Mrs. Luther Leader opened her Bloomfield Hills home Tuesday for a University of Michigan alumnae tea, honoring past presidents of the group. One of the past presidents, Mrs. Max B. Tunnicliffe, who is Mrs. Leader's sister, was asked to pour. Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham also poured. Past presidents from the Birmingham area are Mrs. F. M. Adams, Mrs. Robert Kintworth, Mrs. Norris Hunt, Mrs. Fred Henney, Mrs. Guy Pitts, Mrs. F. G. Davis, Mrs. Edson K. Pool, Mrs. Robert Andreae, Mrs. W. C. Randall, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, and Mrs. Robert F. Watt, who with Mrs. Watt, just returned last Thursday from a month's vacation at their summer home on Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire.

The above group was awarded a silver bowl by the Alumnae association in Ann Arbor for increasing its membership numerically over all the U. of M. alumnae groups in the country.

Several parties are being given this weekend before and after the St. Dunstan's play, "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" Mrs. Wesslan G. Wright will entertain at dinner Friday evening before the performance at her home on N. Glenhurst drive. After the Friday night performance Roy M. Nelson has invited guests to the Nelsons' home on Henrietta street for a theatre party in honor of his wife, who is the leading lady in the play.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wright, of Bates street, have invited some neighbors in for a party after the play. Honor guests will be the Nelsons. Other guests
