'Ho Hum'—Might Just As Well Study Here

Last week was another uneventful one in the lives of most BHHS students. No assemblies were held to break the routine of school life.

We all spent many uninterrupted hours of concentrated studying as doled out by our individual teachers. Many worthwhile hours were spent in local and Detroit libraries. An atmosphere of learning already

Broadened, They're Set To Teach

By DON CUMMINGS

Three Cranbrook masters returned to their teaching routines after the spending time abroad the past summer.

The Floyd Bunt family spent the entire summer traveling through Switzerland, Italy, France, Germany, Holland, and England. Mr. Robert Hoffman spent seven weeks in Rome, Vienna and Switzerland.

MR. AND MRS. Carl Wombser toured extensively through England, visiting various schools, colleges, cathedrals and homes of many English authors.

Quite a few seniors have taken on the added responsibilities of being in charge of an extra-curricular activity for their final year at Cranbrook. Among the most important are "The Crane," Cranbrook's bi-weekly newspaper, the Glee club, the Band, the United World Federalists, "The Opus," Cranbrook's literary magazine, "Ergasterion," the dramatic club, and "The Brook," which is the yearbook published in the late spring.

Steve Stuecheli is Editor-in-Chief of "The Crane." John Sprague and Stew Colson are presidents of the Glee club and band, respectively. John Hartman is president of the United World Federalists and "The Opus." Boris Nicoloff is president of Ergasterion, and Bob Braud and Harvey Croze are co-editors of "The Brook."

EVEN THOUGH new students at Cranbrook have a difficult task in becoming accustomed to their academic work, especially at the start of the school year, the majority found time to enjoy the annual Kingswood-Cranbrook Church Cabinet picnic on Sunday, Oct. 4.

The picnic was originally scheduled to take place on Cranbrook's athletic fields, but due to bad weather it turned into an informal dinner-dance at Cranbrook's auditorium. The new students, especially, seemed to enjoy the informal atmosphere after their first full week at Cranbrook. It also afforded another opportunity to make new acquaintances with the Kingswood students.

efforts in what is generally felt to be Bloomfield's finest game in many years. Our air attack clicked twice for touchdowns and another tally was added on the ground, for a total of 20 points.

Northville had a hard time to contain the rolling Barons further. For the last part of the third and beginning of the fourth quarter, the score was tied at 20-20.

Still, congratulations are due to the Barons for their playing as well as to Northville for its victory.

Here and there: an after-the-game party was held last Friday night at the home of Jack Beedel. Over a hundred people showed and said they enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Saturday night brought Deanna Laughlin and Mike Zweig to a German Oktoberfest. Mr. Clarence Stocum, German instructor at the high school was also there. It was an interesting and informative evening.

IN THE last few minutes Northville pushed over another seven points. Bloomfield's air attack was cut off by the clock, final score a heartbreaking 27-20.
