 Off the Record
 Singing groups were fairly inactive this year until recently. But they are once again producing the great array of hits they have been for so long.

Among the best selling groups this year has been The Fleetwoods, one boy and two girls. Their first hit, was "Come Softly To Me". The follow up was "Graduation is Here." The trio is back again with the number one record of this week, "Mr. Blue."

The clever Coasters have not been dormant. "Charlie Brown" started the year off well, and the past three months have seen their "Along Came Jones" and "Poison Ivy" do well. A highly underrated group, but very consistent, has been The Flamingos. "Lovers Never Say Goodbye," "But Not For Me," "Love Walked In," and the group's latest have all been big hits.

This week's best rated record, "To A Young Lover" is by the Tassels on Madison. The group, which scored with "To A Soldier Boy," has somewhat of a Fleetwood sound on this one.

There's quite a bit of excitement in Detroit, and in Birmingham, over the concert at the Masonic temple featuring the Kingston Trio. Along with the trio will be Bob Scobey's San Francisco band.

At Barnum Jr. High—Representation Without Taxation?

Barnum junior high school recently elected its eighth and ninth grade home room representatives for the student council.

Representatives and their alternates are: Tom Montgomery and Jim Henderson, Kathy Kietzer and Chuck Fischer, Mary Lee Peyton and Douglas Shankwiler, Chris Jensen and Kirk Quillion, Jim Steiner and Terry Schaeffer, Sue Lyndall and Jim Frohberg. Chuck Patton and Sue Cork, Sandra Strom and Thatcher Caldwell, Dick Laula and Pat Roach, Janet Pournace and John Merker, Barbara Vass and Sue Crandall, Jane Malone and Vicki Thornton, Mary Bangs and Sue Jobin, Dean Wisniewski and Douglas Windler.

Set for Their Role

Speech classes have been offered to all students at Marian high school. The course will include conversation and the six basic languages. It will be taught by Sr. Mary Aquinas, history teacher, once a week. One of the functions of the speech class will be a debate club.
