Newlywed Warners Traveling to Florida

First Methodist church in Birmingham was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Ruth Kay Finley and Charles James Warner. The Rev. Arnold Runkel performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 325 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Harley Leroy Finley of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner of Humphrey street, Birmingham.

MRS. CHARLES J. WARNER
 THE BRIDE WORE a gown fashioned of white satin featuring princess lines with the skirt flowing into fullness from the waist. She carried a cascade of white roses, with a removable corsage of white gardenias to be worn on the wedding trip.

Margaret Ann Butts of Harper Woods, maid of honor, wore a ruby-colored taffeta ballgown length gown with a fitted midriff and skirt which flowed into controlled fullness from a princess line at the midriff.

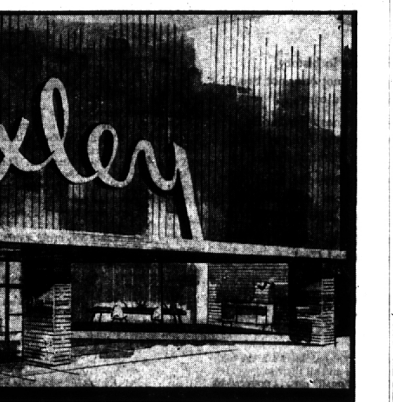

HER FLOWERS were yellow roses with ruby ribbons. A half-hat composed of velvet with matching short veil completed her outfit. Russell Blainis stood as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Blainis, John Keeler, Joseph Cicala and Edgar Greene.

Mother of the bride wore a silk crepe dress with a white orchid. Mrs. Warner chose a black suit with red accessories and a white orchid.

THE NEW Mrs. Warner donned a brown tweed suit to start her wedding trip to Florida. The young couple will live in Clarkston.

Finland Ballet To Perform Here For One Evening

The National Ballet theatre of Finland will play a one-evening engagement at the Edsel and Henry Ford auditorium on Oct. 17 at 8:30 p.m. It is the group's first American tour.

The National Ballet theatre of Finland enjoys a unique reputation among the great dance companies of the world. This uniqueness is probably summarized in a critic, who recently exclaimed in print: "They combine the hot Slavie blood of the Russians with Nordic lyricism and the athletic vigor so characteristic of the Finns themselves!"

Guest Speaker At PEO Meeting
 Birmingham Community House will be the scene Oct. 28 for the meeting of the PEO chapter 66, Birmingham, at 2 p.m. Elizabeth Wayne, musical scholar and lecturer, will be the guest speaker.
