League of Women Voters Honored On Special Day

Birmingham mayor Harry M. Denyes recently made official a proclamation making today League of Women Voters Day in Birmingham to commemorate the many contributions of public service the LWV have made to the community.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams has also issued a proclamation designating today League of Women voters' day throughout Michigan.

Services to Birmingham last year included a speakers bureau which had 44 engagements and is again available free of charge and the distribution of the League Voter's Guide containing non-partisan information on ballot issue and candidates.

Mrs. Eugene J. Lourie, 1543 Dorchester, chairman of the Finance committee, will launch the League Finance drive Monday through Sept. 28. Contributions by civic-minded citizens and organizations are the primary means of financing the activities of the League.

Special! tomorrow and Saturday A FREE coat for a LUCKY LASSIE!

let's study the classics . . . fashion curriculum by lassie

In a class by themselves . . . our exclusive Lassie coats for Fall, '59. Classic lines are deceptively simple; the excitement lies in luxurious new fabric textures, unusual collar and pocket treatment, expensive tailoring details. Here pictured: a swashbuckling plaid, well-mannered tweed, plus our all-American classic boy coat and balmaacan in camel hair-and-wool. See the whole collection, sizes 7-15, 8-18 . . . in glorious colorings.

Mr. Irving Zaretsky, special representative for Lassie coats, will present a special Fall showing on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12.
