MRS. PETER J. SHAGENA

Attendants Wear White Organza

At noon on Saturday the marriage of Judith Patricia Ritner to Peter John Shagena took place at a nuptial high mass at Holy Name church.

The bride wore a Biangi gown of taffeta with a bell skirt which lengthened in back into a full chapel train. The empire waist was accented with alencon lace and a matching tarsi secured her silk illusion veil. She carried white glamelias and staphanotis.

THE FIVE attendants were gowned alike in white organza over taffeta with pink lace inserts. They carried pink glamelias.

Mrs. Paul R. Turner of Dearborn was chosen as matron of honor and bridesmaids included Margaret Jo Shagena of Caro, sister of the bride, Margaret Von Busen of Birmingham, Bernice Macko of Grand Haven and Julie Wiesiora of Chicago.

The bride's niece, Nina Monforte of Milwaukee, as flower girl preceded her down the aisle dressed in soft pink from head to toe.

THE GROOM asked his cousin, Justin McDonough of Saginaw to serve as best man. Ushers were Patrick Wagner of Flint, Dennis Truesler of Saginaw, Thomas Johnson of Flint and James Carideo of Shelton, Conn.

Mrs. P. J. Shagena of Caro chose an embroidered organza sheath over taffeta with matching pink accessories. Mrs. Fred C. Rippet of Clarendon Crest, Bloomfield Hills, wore a plain silk organdy sheath with overskirt and accessories of a deeper pink.

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony, two hundred guests gathered for the reception at Forest Lake Country club.

After a brief honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside at their new home on Tolly lane, Birmingham.

Open House Planned For September 19

The Southern Oakland Girl Scout family, friends and neighbors will attend an Office Open House planned for Sept. 19, 10 a. m. through 4 p. m. at 3269 Coolidge, Berkeley.

Open house chairman is Mrs. Webster Owen of San Quentin, Lathrup Village, who is working with executive director, Diane Richardson. Mrs. C. W. Smith of Chickering lane, Bloomfield Hills, is serving on the committee.

The real name of the famous British Highland Regiment known as "The Black Watch" is "The Royal Highlanders." The unit was organized in 1729 as "The Black Watch."

Howard Hughes, Anne Kennedy Repeat Vows

The Papal blessing was bestowed upon Patricia Anne Kennedy and Howard L. Hughes, Jr., August 22 in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

The Rev. Louis Rohr, OFM, performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are both teachers at Holy Name.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick N. Kennedy of Royal Oak. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Hughes of Flint.

The bride wore a gown of imported silk organza featuring a Sabrina neckline of alencon lace and short, tucked sleeves. Her full carriage drape skirt extended into a chapel train.

A Juliet cap of alencon lace clasped her veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and staphanotis.

JUNE SINE of Detroit attended her cousin as maid of honor in a street length gown of white silk organza over daffodil yellow taffeta.

A matching yellow band and circular veil topped her attire. She carried a cascade of lime fujumms and yellow cornflowers.

Gowned identically were bridesmaids, Elizabeth Stefani of Birmingham and Susanne Helsey of Birmingham.

Michael Hughes of Flint served his brother as best man. Seating the guests were Martin P. Foley of Clawson and Norman Bradford of Flint.

THE COUPLE greeted 150 guests at a reception in the Maplewood clubhouse, before the bride changed into a transitional cotton sheath with white accessories to begin a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.

MRS. HOWARD L. HUGHES, JR.
