SOCIETY

September 29 Is Calendar Day

September 29 is C-Day or Calendar Day, as far as Southern Oakland Girl Scouts are concerned. On that date they'll start taking orders for the '59 Girl Scout calendars.

As a United Foundations agency, the Girl Scout organization will not conduct the sale during the UF campaign, Oct. 15 through Nov. 5, so calendars may be ordered only through Oct. 7. Working on the calendar sale committee from Birmingham is Mrs. Robert Portwood of Kirkshire drive.

Former Classmates Entertained at Tea

Suzanne Blanchard Weds Robert Brook

Suzanne Elaine Blanchard became the bride of Robert Charles Brook Sept. 5 at St. James Episcopal church. The Rev. Dr. Kenneth Gass performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newweds are Dr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Snyder of Ferndale and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brook of Hickory Grove road, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE appeared in a white cotton embroidered organdy gown designed with a Sabrina neckline, snug cap sleeves and tiered chapel train. A scalloped lace and organdy headress secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of lily of the valley and white orchids.

Maid of honor was Margaret Blaurock and bridesmaids were DeLoras Van Lente, Jackie Ostrander and Mrs. Keith Dressel.

ALL WORE cotton blue lace cocktail length gowns with satin trim and matching headresses with short veils. They carried bouquets of phalaenopsis orchids and delphinium.

Philip Chamberlain stood as best man. Ushers were James Blanchard, George Carter, Charles Lyons, Richard Lester and Russell Seaman.

Immediately following the ceremony, guests were greeted at Devon Gables for a reception.

MRS. ROBERT C. BROOK

Attendants Wear Ice Blue Satin

Mary Lou Crouch, daughter of the Robert Charles Crouches of Webster drive, Birmingham, became the bride of Robert Jerry Smith on Sept. 4 in Embury Methodist church.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of Rosedale Park. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel Stout.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk peau de soie with pointed Venice lace appliques. A diara of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Suzanne Taylor of Grand Rapids was maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Pam Merrill and Mary Moxley of Detroit. They wore ice blue satin dresses and carried blue carnations, white mums and ivy.

SAMUEL B. SMITH, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Robert Jellison and Michael Fitch.

Mrs. Crouch chose a silk lace sheath of moon color with accessories to match. Mother of the groom selected a blue silk lace dress with navy accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

The couple will reside in Detroit following a trip to Northern Michigan.

"More and more men are wearing Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes. I know!" The lady is right. (Ask anybody who handles clothes constantly.) Whether you see the label or not, you must have noticed that more and more men are wearing HS&M clothes. They (men and clothes) are distinguished by their slim, youthful, urbane look. It is the worldly new look of HS&M, a label as definite as the one sewn in the coat.
